The Lakers fell short in SUNYAC semis; defeat RIT in ECAC opener

By SHAWN MARCOS

The Oswego State women's basketball team's dream of reclaiming a SUNY Athletic Conference crown came to fruition last weekend as they defeated Cortland State 66-65 to win the SUNYAC tournament for the first time in two years.

The Lakers entered the SUNYAC semifinals as the No. 1 seed after finishing the regular season 23-3 overall and 12-1 in conference play. Cortland State entered the tournament as the No. 2 seed with a 21-5 overall record and 11-2 in conference play.

The Lakers led 39-35 at halftime but saw their lead shrink to three points entering the second half. The Lakers did not lead again until with 3:25 left in the second half when Williams scored two free throws to give the Lakers a 41-39 lead.

Williams did not score after that point, as Cortland State scored 26 of the final 27 points to win the game. The Lakers were led by Collins with 21 points, while Cortland State was led by Kaylin Van Dusen with 28 points.

The Lakers will now advance to the NCAA Division III tournament, where they will face a team to be determined.

A different story unfolded in the SUNYAC second-place game as Pitts­burgh State upset Platts­burgh State 65-60 to earn a spot in the NCAA tournament.

The Lakers, who were the No. 1 seed in the tournament, were led by Collins with 21 points, while Pittsburg State was led by Kaylin Van Dusen with 28 points.
