VOELKERS ARE HOSTS TO MEN

The first meeting of the Men's Club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Lehman, now of Geneva, N. Y., president of the association, welcomed the new members in behalf of the "R. W. C. A. of Potsdam Normal School." A vocal solo by Eleanor Sackoth preceded the address by Rev. Horton, who outlined the high which to which the R. W. C. A. may well aspire. Following the address the members of the Men's Club made the pledge for the first time. With the conclusion of the membership, the T. W. C. A. took for their banner, the motto, "Youth is beautiful, and so are its achievements and opportunities.

CURRICULUM BUILDING THEME OF CONVENTION

FACTORIES MEMBERS REPORT SUCCESSFUL SESSIONS AT SYRACUSE

Faculty members returning from the meeting of the American Teachers' College and Normal Schools Parliaiment of New York State speeded up to Potsdam Normal School. The general sessions and the friendly relations of the faculty members from other institutions are the phrases most frequently mentioned by the members who have been particularly successful.

"Curriculum Building" was the central theme of the discussion. Various problems therewith were analyzed by Dr. H. T. Magee, state director of Teachers' College and Normal School Parliaiment in New York State; Dr. R. Royle, Ohio State University; and Dr. Thomas Alexander, Teachers' College, Columbia University. Most specific applications of recent thought to these problems was made in the general sessions, showing diverse topics of the field of the sciences.

Dr. Hughes Mearns of New York State has been a guest speaker at the banquet and evening session of the "Forum for Educators," held in the student center at the annual convention of the Association of Teachers' College and Normal Schools.

The week in February when the annual convention is held in any large city, becomes "the Forum," followed by the raising of the national flags in the rooms of the convention, the raising of the "The Forum," followed by the raising of the national flags in the rooms of the convention.
