Chateau de Noel has been selected to be the theme for the Christmas Ball sponsored annually by the freshman class. The program will feature the music of Howard Cayer, will be held from 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. on December 6 in the college gym. Highlighting the evening will be the crowning of this year’s queen by sophomore Flo Marzato, queen of the 1959 Christmas Ball.

The seven finalists who have been selected to vie for honors as Chateau Queen are Brad Redmond, George Gruskis, Lawrence Ferguson, Paul Masi, Jack Ullman, Fran Miller, and George Matuszczak.

Dancing to the music of Alex, teen-age band, will be used to highlight the interior of a palace in carrying out the theme Chateau de Noel. Tickets, which are $3.00 each, will be sold at the door.

Prophecy, Birth And Adoration Depicted In Christmas Vespers

SCUB’s twenty-second Annual Christmas Vespers, under the direction of Miss Pauline Haynes and Mr. Daniel DeNinno, will be presented December 8 at 4:15 p.m. in the College Auditorium. This performance will be for the college faculty and students. A repeat performance will be held at 4:30 p.m. December 10 in the high school auditorium, for the student body, parents and friends.

This year’s program will be divided into three sections: The Prophesy, the Birth, and the Adoration. During the course of the program the Missed Chorus will sing Lo, How a Rose E’er Blooming, Christmas Hymn, He Is Born, Sing We Noel Once More, The Christmas Carol, and Adoration To You. The Women’s Glee Club will sing Let Us Gladsome Know Ye End, Great Bambino, Gloria, and Rose Ye, Shepherd. The Vocal Ensemble will sing Bring Your Torchels, and Carol of the Dream. The Processional, O Come All Ye Faithful, and the Recessional, Joy To The World, will be played on the organ by Mr. Charles Thomas. Readings Through the program which will be recited will be done by Fred Smith and Sandra Green.

Those who have been instrumental in presenting Christmas Vespers 1961 are Miss Pauline Haynes, Mr. Daniel DeNinno, director; Mr. Charles Thomas, organist; Miss Sigrid Smith and Mr. Jack Walke, stage and sound equipment; Fred Smith and Sandra Heathcote, readers; Mr. Joe Steckel, public relations; Marge Lathan, Dan Mapson, Helen Seidman, Manny Levan, Dan Mapson, selection of the ‘queen; and Linda Macca, Donna Blue and Julian Fleshman, decorations. Address for the Class of 1961 are Miss Ann Uhlir and Mr. Ralph Steen.

State University College Enrollment Increases By 11.5% To 53,128

Full-time enrollment in State University College’s fall term is 53,128 according to statistics compiled by the University’s Research Office. This is an increase of 5,474 or 11.3 per cent over the enrollment in the fall of 1960. The number of freshmen has risen from 23,199 to 23,347—an increase of 6.3 per cent.

The University’s State Colleges account for 36,409 students, compared with 33,039 last year—an increase of 6.8 per cent. Community college enrollment rose from 14,174 in 1959 to 16,315 for an increase of 15.8 per cent.

Part-time enrollment (main campus only) increased from 20,497 to 23,044. This is a rise of 11.4 per cent. The community college accounts for 15,831 part-time students; the state colleges have a part-time enrollment of 2,554.

The above figures include only students enrolled in degree or credit courses. In addition, there are more than 9,000 students enrolled in non-degree credit courses given

(Continued on Page 3)