

Staff Adopts Office Hours

According to their ability as indicated by the number of items handed in, skill in writing, initiative, and general attitude. Those competing for positions on the business staff are judged by the actual amount of work done, business ability shown, and general attitude. Every effort is made to keep a fair and accurate record. The competition is still open, and any one desiring to enter should report promptly at The Lamron office.

Don't knock just come in!

The following Juniors are working for positions. Give them your support.

Junior C.

Twenty girls of the Junior C group under the leadership of Miss Fuller hiked up the Mt. Morris road beyond Fall Brook and back, Thursday afternoon, March 2. After the hike the girls stopped at Miss Fuller's apartments for refreshments and an enjoyable social hour was spent there. Although rather weary from their hike, the girls agreed that they had spent a very delightful afternoon.
