who Said There Were No Jobs!!!

By Deborahs

A sheltered workshop is a place where physically handicapped people can find vocational training and employment. They are otherwise unable to find a job suitable to their abilities. Such a sheltered workshop, the ARC Rehabilitation Center, is being established in Geneseo to serve the residents of Livingston and Wyoming counties. Although under the auspices of ARC (the Association for Retarded Children), this workshop will serve the physically handicapped people in addition to the mentally retarded.

The chapter of CEC (Council for Exceptional Children) at State University College at Geneseo is helping to raise some money to sponsor a Clothing Drive from Department store, here at Geneseo, will sponsor a Clothing Drive from

The Social Service Committee is once again sponsoring a Clothing Drive from November 1-14. The clothes can be deposited in boxes in each of the residence halls and across from the information desk in the Union. Many of the unfortunate in the Geneseo area rely on your generosity. So why don't you do some for your closests favor. Help make the drive a success.

For all who attended the successful symposium on Abortion last week, you may be looking forward to the next symposium being presented by the Education Committee. Dr. William Cook of the History Department will be giving a talk during "General Ethical Issues" of the symposium. The next meeting is November 15. Let us know what you would like to see happen. See you there.

ERIC and NIGER dorms. The meetings are scheduled for Nov. 3, 6:30 p.m. in NIG and at 7:30 in Eric in the dorm main lounge.

Ms. Jean Schackleford from the Management Science Department will be conducting and Joseph Dechario as piano soloist, will perform "PIANO CONCERTO #2" by Vaughan Williams will complete the performance.

Fridays, November 2 at 8:30 p.m. For all those who wished to attend, we will be offering another retreat during the spring semester. Anyone who has not yet had the opportunity to visit the Center, your chance is come. We will be holding an open house on Sunday, Nov. 11 from 3-6 p.m. Come and join us for the Whitney Shout Hour planned for then. They always prove to be quite a happy time.

Remember Parish Council meets every other Thursday night at 5:30 at the Center. The next meeting is Nov. 15. Let us know what you would like to see happen. See you there.

The program, with James Walker conducting and Joseph Dechario as piano soloist, will feature the following:

- CHAMBER SYMPHONY to Perform on November 1st
- "GREAT TUESDAY NIGHT" by Rovel and "PIANO CONCERTO #2" by Saint-Saens. Works by Levy and Vaughan Williams will complete the program.

The program is open to the public and tickets will be on sale at the door at a cost of $1. Students with ID's will be admitted free.

The Chamber Symphony, in its fourth season, draws its members from among the most talented students in the Geneseo Community and the best of the young professional performers in the greater Rochester area. The group has as its nucleus, the Flautist Quartet, currently in residence at Geneseo State.

There is a fabulous door prize of stereo equipment. To be more specific, it is a Electrohome ESL Total Stere Sound Center. The drawing for the door prize will be on November 2nd at 8:00 p.m.

Tickets for the dance will be available at the C.U. Information Desk, in the C.U. lobby on Monday, Nov. 5 and Thursday, Nov. 8, and at the door on Friday evening, the 9th. Come and have a great time, have a good chance of winning some stereo equipment, and help start a sheltered workshop in this area.

- William Cook of the History Department will be giving a talk during "General Ethical Issues" of the symposium.
- The meetings are scheduled for Nov. 3, 6:30 p.m. in NIG and at 7:30 in Eric in the dorm main lounge.
- Ms. Jean Schackleford from the Management Science Department will be conducting and Joseph Dechario as piano soloist, will perform "PIANO CONCERTO #2" by Vaughan Williams.
- The Chamber Symphony will perform on November 1st.
- "GREAT TUESDAY NIGHT" by Rovel and "PIANO CONCERTO #2" by Saint-Saens. Works by Levy and Vaughan Williams will complete the program.

The program is open to the public and tickets will be on sale at the door at a cost of $1. Students with ID's will be admitted free.

The Chamber Symphony, in its fourth season, draws its members from among the most talented students in the Geneseo Community and the best of the young professional performers in the greater Rochester area. The group has as its nucleus, the Flautist Quartet, currently in residence at Geneseo State.

There is a fabulous door prize of stereo equipment. To be more specific, it is a Electrohome ESL Total Stere Sound Center. The drawing for the door prize will be on November 2nd at 8:00 p.m.

Tickets for the dance will be available at the C.U. Information Desk, in the C.U. lobby on Monday, Nov. 5 and Thursday, Nov. 8, and at the door on Friday evening, the 9th. Come and have a great time, have a good chance of winning some stereo equipment, and help start a sheltered workshop in this area.