TO OUR READERS.

The editorial and business management of THE RAY will be under the direct supervision and control of the Solidarity Publishing Association of Troy, N. Y., and will be conducted solely in the interests of the Knights of Labor.

THERE is quite a fuss made about the tariff these days, and while all agree (to disagree) that there should be something done to reduce the surplus in the treasury...

et al., and those goods that, by admitting them, injure our people all over the country, should be kept out altogether...

The New York Sun still keeps obnoxious the members of the K. of L. and especially the general officers, and devotes an article each day to the members from the Order...

The largest real store in the United States has just been opened in Brooklyn. It is stocked in a curious way. A Fulton street candy man sells the candy...

AFTER the well-trodden stories of the stoppage of railway trains by grasshoppers in the Western States, the American reader need not be much surprised...

The iron and steel-making capacity of the country is said to be fully employed for producing rails, rail fastenings, locomotives, cars and equipments of every character.

HON. SAMUEL J. RANDALL predicts that within less than a generation the South will be the richest half of the Union.

A Narrow Escape. "Speaking of mushrooms and toasts, gentlemen," chimed in Danley, "a crowd of mine not long ago gathered...

Looking for his Hat. Husband (to wife)—Do you believe in the theory that the greatness of a father often proves a stumbling block to the advancement of his son in life?

A False Impression. Young Mr. Sissy (on board the Fleetwing)—Yeh, Miss Manie, this is a (he) cent-stamp card. Didn't you (she) know that?

A Request Granted. Long-haired Man (to bartender)—Can I have a few tracks in here, my friend? Bartender—Yes, you can leave a few tracks in here and I want the loss to point toward the door.

A Point of Etiquette. Boston Man—You mustn't speak of your legs, Flossie, when we have company. It isn't polite. Flossie—What should I say, mamma, drinkstricks?
