

Mount Kisco Merry - Go - Round

The Rosary Auxiliary of St. Francis Church held its annual Christmas party on Wednesday in the church, and gifts were exchanged.

The Woman's Society for Christian Service study and action group of the Methodist Church met last week to hear Miss Nellie Burton speak on "Symbolism in Christian Worship." Mrs. Roderick MacKenzie, Mrs. Hazel Johannessen and Mrs. Fred Dryer were hostesses for the meeting.

John Richard, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Vittorini of Maple Avenue, was baptized last Sunday in St. Francis Church. Mr. and Mrs. John MacDonald of Maple Avenue are god parents for their nephew. The Rev. Charles Gehrman officiated at the ceremony. The baby was born November 12 in Northern Westchester Hospital.

Miss Margaret Fox is making arrangements for a theatre party to be enjoyed by the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in New York City on January 7.

Parents who attended a tea last week in the third grade classroom of Mrs. Thomas Ranger were Mes. Richard Bierregaard, Andrew Zuccaro, Isadore Mark, Ernest Lareginia, August Bagnato, Nicholas Cosentino, Robert Haig, George Van Marter, Louis Warner, Harry Leviton, Andrew Anderson, William Skinner, Joseph Tansey and Perry Trafoord, West and Harold Jennings.

A community Christmas carol sing will be held in front of the Municipal Building tonight. Church choirs are expected to join the singing.

Santa Claus made a special trip to Abel's Department Store on Saturday to listen to the requests of Mount Kisco youngsters.

A Christmas concert and carol service by the senior and junior choirs of the Methodist Church was held on Sunday at 4:30. Dr. Horton Lindsley sang "The Lord Is My Light" and Mrs. W. R. Lockridge, organist, played several pieces.

PANCAKE DANCE

The High School group of the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, Chappaqua, has completed its plans for the second donation pancake dance, Friday, December 29. The affair at the home of Gurney Williams, Douglas Road, Chappaqua, will begin at 8 p. m., and breakfast will be served at 12:30. Donations will be added to the group's Parish House fund.

Miss Barbara Stahl, chairman of the dance committee, may be called for further information.

Graduates of Horace Greeley and students from other schools will be welcomed by the local group. The party is planned during the holiday season as a get-together for all Chappaqua young people and their house guests.
