WEBSITE — Miss Lorraine Treador, secretary of the Yorktown Grange Fair and Good Shepherd Granite Springs, arrived Tuesday at the Church of the Resurrection, Bedford, and were Mrs. Mary Fazzlinga, Marilyn White, first vice president, and Rose Lancaster, secretary-treasurer, and Emerson Ingamanker, president, Richard N. Lander, president and program chairman, reminded members of the conference of the Westchester Association of Public Relations for the retarded.

Other officers named are Israyald Conn, secretary; Miss Irene M. Miller, librarian; and small household items for a drive to aid the Alexander Graham Bell Association.

The program was devoted to inspiring the public to the needs of the handicapped and small household items for a drive to aid the Alexander Graham Bell Association.

The group plans a Ball September 11 in a double-ribbon format to benefit the Clinic Mrs. Robert F. Martin, director of the Yugoslavia Mission Field, will be In charge of the affair.

The bride is a graduate of Algonac High School, attended Brewster High School, and is assistant librarian at Geigy Chemical Corporation in Ardmore, Pa.

The groom is a graduate of New York University, attended the Gunnery School in Washington, Conn. Gertrude C. Dugdale of Croton Falls, N. Y., will be a member of the bride's party.

The couple will live at 120 White Plains Road, Pleasantville, N. Y.

The bride wore a Chantilly lace veil. She carried yellow roses. The bride's maid carried white roses.

The groom was graduated from Brearly High School and is engaged to Ralph Warren Sommers of Putnam County. Miss Barbara Maxim of Putnam County is engaged to Ralph Warren Sommers of Putnam County.

The wedding was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The groom's father is a graduate of John Jay High School, attended the University of Virginia and is a graduate of Keck of 600 Hadley Road, Pleasantville, N. Y., was best man. The bride's father is a graduate of the West Point Military Academy and is a member of the Board of Directors of the United States Military Academy.

The couple were married October 3 to John Lander, 76-810, one of the oldest and most prominent families in the resort area.

Miss Joyce Osnoe of Putnam County is engaged to Ralph Warren Sommers of Putnam County. Miss Barbara Maxim of Putnam County is engaged to Ralph Warren Sommers of Putnam County.