Who needs a Christmas Club?

PEEKSKILL SAVINGS BANK is often asked this question. As savings bankers one of our prime objectives is to foster thrift and the accumulations of savings. In this day of inflation and rising costs it takes great will power and self discipline to save. The first step is to save consistently, even small amounts saved on a regular basis grow significantly over a period of time. A Christmas Club which requires a consistent weekly payment is a great help in training one to get the regular savings habit and at the same time have funds available at that very special time — the holiday season.
