

CHILD IS RESCUED,
4 FAMILIES FLEE
FIRE EARLY TO-DAY

Policeman Misses Girl in First
Search, Found Later on Top Floor.

A six-year-old girl was rescued from the top floor of the three-story building at No. 547 West 49th Street early today and four families in the building roused from sleep and escorted to the street by policemen a few moments before the fire, which started on the first floor, filled the hallways with smoke and made escape impossible by the stairs.

The first floor of the building is vacant, having been formerly occupied by a saloon. Patrolman Alexander Stewart of the Mercer Street Station, who lives in the neighborhood, was on his way home early to-day when he noticed smoke coming from the hallway. He blew his whistle and ran through the upper floors of the building arousing the occupants and guiding them to the street through halls already beginning to fill with smoke. Believing everyone was out he ran to turn in an alarm.

Patrolman James Hanlon of the West 47th Street Station met Stewart, who told him to go through the house again to make sure everyone was out. Hanlon did so and on the top floor found six-year-old Frances Seebeck. He carried the child downstairs.

CONTRACTOR ON TRIAL ON CHARGE OF MURDER.

Alleged to Have Picked Quarrel
With Friend and Shot Him.

Charles Maki was put on trial in the Richmond County Court at St. George, to-day, before Judge Tiedman for the murder of Yelma Kaddo on Westwood Avenue, West New Brighton, Sept. 2, 1921. Acting District Attorney Dulien told the jury he would show that Maki and Kaddo, both contractors, were friendly up to two months before the killing, when Maki accused Kaddo of setting fire to the home of a relative in Westwood Avenue. Mr. Dulien said that Maki armed himself with a revolver on the day of the killing, picked a quarrel with Kaddo and shot him through the head.

The defense will try to prove that Kaddo was the aggressor, had provoked Maki down and was choking him to death when Maki shot him in self defense.
