

The Whig State Convention, to be held at Syracuse on Wednesday, Oct. 1. It is a committee of the Whig voters of each District in the State, to be chosen by the Whig voters of each District in such manner as the County Committee shall direct.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

The commencement of a New Volume of our Weekly and the approaching assembling of a new Congress, closely balanced in the attachment of its members to one or the other of the great Political Parties which divide the Country, impel us briefly to address the public. The fact that, through the ensuing Winter at least, a large measure of attention, especially among the reading and reflecting class, will inevitably be withdrawn from personal and local matters, from the pursuit of gain and the pursuit of light literature appropriately so called, and fixed on National concerns and questions of the loftiest import, naturally suggests the expectation that journals like THE TRIBUNE will be more eagerly sought and more widely read through the year 1848 than in either of the three preceding.

We are on the eve of another Presidential Election. Let none fancy that, since it is approached so calmly, it will be conducted sluggishly and terminated without excitement. Whoever cherishes such an illusion mistakes the character of the American People and the impulses which sway them. Equally idle is the imagination that Party lines are to be effaced and broken down in this contest—that the prestige of some heroic achievement or the glitter of an epaulette is to chase from the popular mind all memory of the radical differences of sentiment which have so often arrayed one-half our countrymen in fierce conflict with the other—Idle chimeras! Those offspring of an empty heart or a sickly brain! With the progress of events a particular measure may become more or less important, the emphatic assertion of a certain principle more or less essential, but the question of questions remains and will remain. At one time, the establishment or maintenance of a Sound and Uniform Currency; at another, the upbuilding and cherishing of new or feeble branches of Home Industry; at another, the proper disposition of the Proceeds of the Public Lands; at a fourth, Peace or War, Spoliation or Justice; but underneath all these, mightier than any more enduring than all, lives over the elemental difference in which parties have their origin—on one side the idea that Government should be CREATIVE, CONSTRUCTIVE, BENEFICENT; on the other, the negative, sceptical, do-nothing element, whose axioms are 'The best Government is that which governs least,' 'The People are inclined to expect too much from Government,' &c.—which sees in a Canal, a Railroad, a Harbor, a Protective Duty, only a means of enriching a few individuals at the expense of the community, and which cannot conceive how any can be benefited by a public work without inflicting injury in at least equal measure upon others. The fundamental axioms of this negative philosophy are really hostile to Common Roads and Common Schools required and sustained by Law as well as to those elements of National well-being against which it now directs the energies of a great party. The antagonism of sentiment growing out of these conflicting views of the nature and true ends of Government cannot, in the nature of things, be lastingly compromised; it cannot be terminated by the result of any one election. It must be potentially felt in the party contests and popular agitations of many years to come.

THE CONTROLLERSHIP.

Mr. SAUNDERS B. BURGESS of this City, who has been named as the principal candidate of the Whig party for Controller at the next election, positively declines to register to allow his name to be put on the list of candidates for the office. Mr. PHILLIPS, who has likewise been named as a candidate for the office, has also declined to allow his name to be put on the list, and has instead given up his office as a public accountant, and has devoted himself to the study of the law. It is not our custom to appoint Local Agents to solicit subscriptions, nor to place great reliance on Agents at all. But any person who is well enough known to be trusted by his neighbors may act as such, and help him to do so, by taking this Prospectus and asking those who like THE TRIBUNE to hand him the money for a year, which he can remit at Club price and thus obtain pay for his time and trouble. Subscriptions accompanied by payments are respectfully solicited.

NOTES OF ALL SPECIE-BANKS IN THE UNITED STATES.

Notes of all specie-banks in the United States are taken for circulation at this point at 94c. Money enclosed in a letter to our address, and deposited in any Post Office in the United States, may be considered as a check, but a description of the bills only in all cases to be sent.

THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

On Thursday last the great questions growing out of it, THE TRIBUNE maintains emphatically the doctrines of the Whig Party. It advocates PROTECTION TO HOME INDUSTRY, wherever such Protection may be needed, and to the extent of the necessity; a NATIONAL CURRENCY, sound and of uniform value, composed of Coin and Paper in such proportions as public interest and general convenience shall dictate; INTERNAL IMPROVEMENT, by the General and State Governments, each in its own sphere, and by Associations, liberally incited thereto by such facilities as Legislation may safely and justly afford; and such disposition of the PUBLIC LAND PROCEEDS as shall secure the benefit thereof to the People of all the States throughout all future time. Above all, this paper will study the things that make for PEACE, and strenuously oppose the fell spirit of War, the last of Conquest and the passion for Military Glory, so mortally adverse to all those ideas of Social and Political Economy to which it is devoted, as a midwife to genuine Democracy, as utterly at variance with Christianity, and as a scandal to the Nineteenth Century. These views will be faithfully and fearlessly commended to public favor; while our opposition to the Extension of Human Slavery over one foot of soil whereon it has not now a legal existence shall be unsparring, uncompromising, and subject to no consideration of Party advantage or Presidential triumph. Far sorer will we sink with our principles than succeed without them, however desirable success or however mortifying defeat.

New Theatre in New-York.

The Broadway Theatre just opened in our City, is praised by our theatre-going contemporaries as unrivaled in the elegance and richness of its furniture, the good taste of its decorations, and in the general excellence of its provisions for the ease and comfort of its visitors. We presume these praises are deserved. On the other hand, we do not feel already acquainted to the quality of its performers and performance is better than the reverse. It strikes us as noteworthy that, while every great improvement has been made in almost every other department of human effort, and in all that is material and external improvement has been made in this, it is very generally condescended by play-goers that the Drama of our day is far beneath the standard of the age of Socrates, Aristotle, and the ancients, and it is only a far less potential element of social instruction and enjoyment than it has been. Why so?

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE is issued Daily.

The NEW-YORK TRIBUNE is issued Daily (on Mornings and Two Evening Editions, in order to serve each subscriber with the latest news possible) on a fair imperial sheet at Five Dollars per annum, or half the price of the great Commercial Journals, by which it aims to be surpassed in nothing but Advertisements. A SEMI-WEEKLY edition is issued on a similar sheet each Wednesday and Friday, and afforded to subscribers at Three Dollars per annum or $5 for two copies. THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE is printed on a sheet of nearly double the size of the Daily, and affords at Two Dollars per annum, Six copies for $10, Ten copies for $15, or Twenty for $24—payment being invariably required in advance. When the term paid for expires the paper is uniformly stopped, so that no man need hesitate to take it from an apprehension that he will be persecuted by duns or unable to get rid of the paper when tired of it. This rule has given offence to a few patrons of the non-paying order, but the great majority seem to like it better than the old fashion.

It is not our custom to appoint Local Agents to solicit subscriptions, nor to place great reliance on Agents at all. But any person who is well enough known to be trusted by his neighbors may act as such, and help him to do so, by taking this Prospectus and asking those who like THE TRIBUNE to hand him the money for a year, which he can remit at Club price and thus obtain pay for his time and trouble. Subscriptions accompanied by payments are respectfully solicited.

LOCO-FOCO STATE CONVENTION.

From our Special Correspondent.

Old Hunkerism Triumphant! SYRACUSE, Sept. 29, 1847. A merely preliminary vote has just been taken, and the Hunkers have triumphed by a majority of 79. The vote stood 93 to 83—eight too many, (these being so many contacted seats and the rival claims all voting.)

FURTHER FROM SYRACUSE.

Hunker Triumph Complete.

The Democratic Convention met at 10 o'clock this morning, all the members being present but one. The body commenced business by the appointment of Wm. C. Crain of Cortland and Hon. Anselm Birdall of Broome County as tellers, call the roll, and receive the credentials of members.

From our Special Correspondent.

SYRACUSE, N.Y., Thursday Morning. The combat deniers' in the LoCo-Foco camp here. The Old Hunkers are in the ascendant, and will floor Plagg. They intend to nominate Wm. F. HAYES for your City for Lieut. Governor, and call it a concession to the Barnburners. The Barnburners have resolved to hold, organize a separate Convention, and 'go it strong' on their own individual hook. They will nominate Plagg for Controller of county, Tilden of your City for Attorney General, Hudson of Erie and Lee for Canal Commissioners, and will probably repudiate Haysmever and select a 'new man' for Lieut. Governor—Baker or some such.
