

ARMY WILL PROVISIONS

Strength for the Army, with a Minimum of 50,000 and a Maximum of 100,000. A Clause Allocated at Spain's Case.

Special Dispatch to the Evening Post. WASHINGTON, November 29.—The House of Representatives today passed the bill...

It is provided also that officers below the grade of lieutenant-colonel in any of the above-named departments shall serve one year in the line...

The above quoted provision is one of the most important and radical of the changes proposed by the bill. It amounts, in effect, to the abolition of the staff corps as a permanent institution...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

The permanent staff of the present organization of the army is composed of the members of the present staff organizations, which require the present officers to take a periodical turn at line duty...

THE MUNICIPAL CAMPAIGN. FAVOR AND OPPOSITION FOR MR. CUTTING'S VIEWS.

Division of Sentiment in the Citizens' Union—Its President's Proclamation Called Indifferent—John De Witt Warren's Statement in Support of His Propositions—Other Opinions.

While the views of R. Fulton Cutting, President of the Citizens' Union, are usually upheld by the members of the organization, his pronouncement on what he believes to be the best course to follow in municipal campaigns, which he sent to the Evening Post exclusively on Wednesday, did not necessarily represent the ideas of the Union as a body of citizens.

Mr. Cutting's statement is a "positive program." To-day one of the signers of the circular recently issued by the Citizens' Union, Henry B. Rowland, said that he understood Mr. Cutting's statement to be merely an expression of personal opinion.

"The Citizens' Union is now in process of reorganization, so that Mr. Cutting's views can hardly be taken as representative. For instance, I have my own views on the subjects discussed by Mr. Cutting. I believe that the main issue in the municipal campaign is to be the league of the police and the governing power, which is almost the same question now, and it will be a very difficult question to handle."

"The separation of these two is the great question now, and it will be a very difficult question to handle. The idea of Tammany Hall as an agency to support the views of, of course, absurd. What the citizens should do first of all is to agree upon some way of separating the police from law. Let them decide how to do that, whether by legislating them out of office or by removing Tammany from control, they must start with the police."

Abner S. Haight, a member of the Central Committee of the Citizens' Union, declared that Mr. Cutting has acted "with wisdom and foresight." He said: "I heartily uphold Mr. Cutting in everything he has done or is about to do. He has not a shade of criticism to offer against him. He is one of the most loyal, patriotic, and self-sacrificing citizens in New York."

Whatever he does is done with the greatest insight into the conditions of the city. "Do you, then, endorse the entire statement of Mr. Cutting?" he was asked. "Every word of it. Mr. Cutting is working for the good of the city. He is not a man who is in it for the money. He is an official statement. We are drifting from our meetings with Mr. Cutting. If it continues, our aim as an organization will be to do the best we can for the city."

"There is one question now, and only one—that is, to defeat Platt and Croker, and to elect a man who will do the best for the city. What is your idea of municipal ownership of public utilities?"

"All that is socialistic. It has no place in our program. It is a question in his statement. I do not believe, either, that the tenements should go unregulated. Such measures might properly be considered after we have set the city on a new basis. The city is a great city—no better. You may quote me as saying that Mr. Cutting, as President of the Citizens' Union, has done a most independent job."

John De Witt Warner put the matter thus: "As a whole, Mr. Cutting's statement seems to me an admirable one. It is a plain, simple, and direct statement. His main proposition is unanswerable: Reform with clean hands. He is a man of ability, and public spirit, and he means to do it. It is a better proposition than any other that has been put forward to this city. It is this that we should support. It is this that we should support. It is this that we should support."

"I should be sorry to learn that any considerable body of good citizens were opposed to it. It is a plain, simple, and direct statement. His main proposition is unanswerable: Reform with clean hands. He is a man of ability, and public spirit, and he means to do it. It is a better proposition than any other that has been put forward to this city. It is this that we should support. It is this that we should support. It is this that we should support."

It would be better, it seems to me, to recognize the growing tendency toward city control and operation of local franchises, and more liberal provision for the common needs of its citizens, having each step to be met as a practical question as it is reached.

For example, San Francisco's new charter declares it to be the "purpose and intention of the people of this city and county, that its public utilities shall be gradually acquired and ultimately owned by the city and county." And our New York Chamber of Commerce has just recommended to our Charter Revision Committee: "We propose that the city should own its own water supply, and should acquire, if it can be done on fair terms, the gas and electrical supplies."

It would be better, it seems to me, to recognize the growing tendency toward city control and operation of local franchises, and more liberal provision for the common needs of its citizens, having each step to be met as a practical question as it is reached.

For example, San Francisco's new charter declares it to be the "purpose and intention of the people of this city and county, that its public utilities shall be gradually acquired and ultimately owned by the city and county." And our New York Chamber of Commerce has just recommended to our Charter Revision Committee: "We propose that the city should own its own water supply, and should acquire, if it can be done on fair terms, the gas and electrical supplies."

It would be better, it seems to me, to recognize the growing tendency toward city control and operation of local franchises, and more liberal provision for the common needs of its citizens, having each step to be met as a practical question as it is reached.

For example, San Francisco's new charter declares it to be the "purpose and intention of the people of this city and county, that its public utilities shall be gradually acquired and ultimately owned by the city and county." And our New York Chamber of Commerce has just recommended to our Charter Revision Committee: "We propose that the city should own its own water supply, and should acquire, if it can be done on fair terms, the gas and electrical supplies."

It would be better, it seems to me, to recognize the growing tendency toward city control and operation of local franchises, and more liberal provision for the common needs of its citizens, having each step to be met as a practical question as it is reached.

For example, San Francisco's new charter declares it to be the "purpose and intention of the people of this city and county, that its public utilities shall be gradually acquired and ultimately owned by the city and county." And our New York Chamber of Commerce has just recommended to our Charter Revision Committee: "We propose that the city should own its own water supply, and should acquire, if it can be done on fair terms, the gas and electrical supplies."

It would be better, it seems to me, to recognize the growing tendency toward city control and operation of local franchises, and more liberal provision for the common needs of its citizens, having each step to be met as a practical question as it is reached.

For example, San Francisco's new charter declares it to be the "purpose and intention of the people of this city and county, that its public utilities shall be gradually acquired and ultimately owned by the city and county." And our New York Chamber of Commerce has just recommended to our Charter Revision Committee: "We propose that the city should own its own water supply, and should acquire, if it can be done on fair terms, the gas and electrical supplies."

It would be better, it seems to me, to recognize the growing tendency toward city control and operation of local franchises, and more liberal provision for the common needs of its citizens, having each step to be met as a practical question as it is reached.

For example, San Francisco's new charter declares it to be the "purpose and intention of the people of this city and county, that its public utilities shall be gradually acquired and ultimately owned by the city and county." And our New York Chamber of Commerce has just recommended to our Charter Revision Committee: "We propose that the city should own its own water supply, and should acquire, if it can be done on fair terms, the gas and electrical supplies."

It would be better, it seems to me, to recognize the growing tendency toward city control and operation of local franchises, and more liberal provision for the common needs of its citizens, having each step to be met as a practical question as it is reached.

For example, San Francisco's new charter declares it to be the "purpose and intention of the people of this city and county, that its public utilities shall be gradually acquired and ultimately owned by the city and county." And our New York Chamber of Commerce has just recommended to our Charter Revision Committee: "We propose that the city should own its own water supply, and should acquire, if it can be done on fair terms, the gas and electrical supplies."

BURNED ON MOLTEN GLASS. Fifteen Lives Lost and Eighty-three Persons Injured in the Accident to the San Francisco Football Spectators.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 30.—A revised list of the dead in yesterday's accident to a crowd of men and boys witnessing the Stanford-California football game from the roof of a glass manufactory shows fifteen names. More than one hundred persons fell into the furnace of the factory upon the roof of the collapsed. The injured now being cared for in hospitals or at their homes number thirty-three, and of these several cannot survive.

The dead are Edgar Fairhaven, eleven years; W. H. Bokfield, twelve years; William Van Dusen, eighteen years; Thomas J. Hippen, twenty-four years; James A. McPhee, forty years; Marquis Van Dura, forty-five years; Virgil Newby, fifteen years; Leonard Barwell, sixteen years; Walter De la Cruz, sixteen years; Will Rithstein, twelve years; Robert Miller, seventeen years; Victor McGill, fifteen years; and Moses O'Connell, fifteen years. John Zrough, died to-day in hospital.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

One of the bodies, believed to be J. A. Mulrony, was also identified as E. C. Putnam, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean, and others. The bodies were found in a pile of molten glass, and were so badly injured that they were unrecognizable.

Silver Applied Pottery and Glass Wares

We display a collection of choice examples of domestic and imported pottery and glass wares, beautifully decorated with silver scrolls. These ornaments are graceful in form, rich in tint and color. Prices range from $5.00 to $50.00.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

Theodore A. Kohn & Son Jewellers 56 West 23d St.

DAVIS COLLAMORE & CO.

Have now on show and for sale a large collection of the prize winning pieces of Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

Rookwood Pottery awarded the "GRAND PRIX" at the Paris Exhibition.

RISE OF PEASANTS. Twenty Moldavians Shot and Many Taken Prisoners.

BUCHAREST, Romania, November 30.—A rising of Moldavian peasants against the new tax on purple spirits has taken place. The military have shot about twenty men and have made many prisoners.

Members of Former Commission Said to Be Included in Proposed One. In the Supreme Court to-day Justice Fitzgerald reserved decision upon the application for the appointment of a commission to inquire into the mental condition of H. Victor Newcomb of this city.

De Lancy Nicoll, representing Mr. Newcomb, opposed the application, on the ground that the majority of the men whose names are submitted to the court as members of the commission have already passed an opinion upon his mental condition.

The names of the alienists, who are proposed for the commission, are Dr. Cyrus Edson, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean Hamilton, Dr. A. A. Smith, Dr. William B. Anderson, and Dr. Allen Fitch. For more than ten years proceedings over Mr. Newcomb's mental condition have occupied the attention of the court. He has in the past been committed to a sanitarium and discharged. At the present time, Mr. Newcomb is endeavoring to convince a referee appointed by the Supreme Court that he is fit to manage his own affairs.

Under the direction of the court, Mr. Newcomb is under the charge of a committee. The names of the alienists, who are proposed for the commission, are Dr. Cyrus Edson, Dr. John Quakerly, Dr. Alan McLean Hamilton, Dr. A. A. Smith, Dr. William B. Anderson, and Dr. Allen Fitch.

At the hospitals, where the injured are being treated, it was announced that most of the patients are doing well, but that several more names will probably be added to the list of the dead.

TROTTERS AT AUCTION. The chief feature of the Paig-Trotter sale of property in Madison Square Garden to-day was The Abbott, the fastest trotter in the world, who is to be sold at four o'clock this afternoon. It is declared by experts that the horse is worth $100,000.

On September 28, at the track at Longwood, he trotted home as champion of the year in 2:03 1/2, half a second better than any other performance in the history of the turf. The horse is owned by the late John G. Mott.

The following names were among those who attended the sale: J. P. Morgan, J. D. Rockefeller, J. C. Harriman, J. B. Phelps, J. A. Mott, J. W. Seligman, J. R. Thayer, J. H. Morgan, J. S. Morgan, J. K. Morgan, J. L. Morgan, J. M. Morgan, J. N. Morgan, J. O. Morgan, J. P. Morgan, J. Q. Morgan, J. R. Morgan, J. S. Morgan, J. T. Morgan, J. U. Morgan, J. V. Morgan, J. W. Morgan, J. X. Morgan, J. Y. Morgan, J. Z. Morgan.

Child Shot Instead of Father. Longwood, November 30.—The British steamer Longwood, Capt. Bartlett, which arrived at New York on November 28 from Zanzibar via North, had ten days ago disabled, bulwarks and stanchions damaged, and lost part of decked during the passage. She was also damaged by striking the dock entrance when entering the harbor at New York.

Scarlet Fever Epidemic in Baltimore. More than a dozen cases of scarlet fever have been reported to the health authorities in the village of Baldwin, L. I. The Board of Education has ordered the public schools closed for two weeks, and Health Officer Lanchester is establishing quarantine within the fever exists.

No Move in the Maybrick Case. London, November 30.—The officers of the United States Embassy say they have not received any instructions in regard to taking further steps for the release from Working Farm Mrs. Florence Maybrick. She is undergoing imprisonment for life after being convicted, in 1859, of poisoning her husband with arsenic.

Following on either side were as follows: Rigg, B. M., 1894; 1895; 1896; 1897; 1898; 1899; 1900; 1901; 1902; 1903; 1904; 1905; 1906; 1907; 1908; 1909; 1910; 1911; 1912; 1913; 1914; 1915; 1916; 1917; 1918; 1919; 1920; 1921; 1922; 1923; 1924; 1925; 1926; 1927; 1928; 1929; 1930; 1931; 1932; 1933; 1934; 1935; 1936; 1937; 1938; 1939; 1940; 1941; 1942; 1943; 1944; 1945; 1946; 1947; 1948; 1949; 1950; 1951; 1952; 1953; 1954; 1955; 1956; 1957; 1958; 1959; 1960; 1961; 1962; 1963; 1964; 1965; 1966; 1967; 1968; 1969; 1970; 1971; 1972; 1973; 1974; 1975; 1976; 1977; 1978; 1979; 1980; 1981; 1982; 1983; 1984; 1985; 1986; 1987; 1988; 1989; 1990; 1991; 1992; 1993; 1994; 1995; 1996; 1997; 1998; 1999; 2000.

GRAND JURY PRESENTMENTS. Changes in Water Department Accounting Recommended. Because of discharged the November grand jury this afternoon after thanking them for their services. The foreman, John P. Faure, presented several reports from commissioners and officials examined, a memorandum announcing that the jury do not to go into the Curtis Fire Insurance Company matter and five presentments.

One presentment dealt with the water question. The jury found that the water supply is insufficient for the city, and recommended that the water be sold at an even price, and that employees in that office be careful and honest. The jury recommended that a competent authority be employed at once to make a searching investigation of the water supply, and that the water be sold at an even price, and that employees in that office be careful and honest.

Another dealt with the Water Register's office, and recommended that accounts there be simplified, that water be sold at an even price, and that employees in that office be careful and honest. The jury recommended that a competent authority be employed at once to make a searching investigation of the water supply, and that the water be sold at an even price, and that employees in that office be careful and honest.

After the Landlords. Report of Tammany's Parity Committee—Places Closed. Tammany's