

THE DAILY NEWS.

Vol. IV.—Whole Number 1,121

BATAVIA, N. Y., WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 8, 1882.

Price Two cents.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

STATEMENT OF

The Mutual Life Insurance Company

OF NEW YORK.

F. S. WINSTON, PRESIDENT.

For the Year ending December 31st, 1881.

Income during Year 1881.
From Premiums.....	$1,219,624 62
Interest and Rents.....	5,051 49 74
Total Income.....	$1,224,676 06
Disbursements during Year 1881.
For Death-claims.....	$449,245 91
Matured Endowment.....	1,005,177 58
Annuities.....	24,094 80
Dividends.....	2,947,395 85
Surrendered Policies.....	3,303,247 98
Commissions.....	774,032 88
Contingent Guarantee Account.....	204,574 35
Taxes and Assessments.....	246,709 27
Expenses.....	792,525 07
Total Disbursements.....	$4,777,913 69
Total Claims paid during the year.....	$6,365,373 49
Total paid Policy holders during the year.....	12,640,117 12
Assets, January 1st, 1882.
Mortgages on Real Estate.....	$47,565,849 23
United States and other Bonds.....	1,922,730 00
Loans on Collaterals.....	2,661,500 00
Real Estate.....	7,302,749 01
Cash in Banks.....	1,792 05 73
Interest Accrued.....	1,223,017 64
Deferred Premiums.....	583,988 55
Premiums in Transit.....	98,317 76
Total Assets.....	$54,722,957 92
Liabilities, January 1st, 1882.
Reserve, at our percentage.....	$59,371,051 00
Death claims not yet due.....	8,5785 36
Premiums paid in advance.....	19,364 78
Agents' Balances.....	3,773 74
Surplus and Contingent Guarantee Fund.....	449,245 91
Total Liabilities.....	$69,702,957 92
Surplus, January 1st, 1882.
By Company's standard.....	$ 497,383 04
Massachusetts State standard.....	612,968 04
New York State standard.....	22,205,450 04
Insurance in Force January 1st, 1882, 101,490 Policies, insuring.....	$315,900,137
A. G. GAGE, AGENT, BATAVIA, N. Y.
CHRISTIE & BOARDMAN, GENERAL AGENTS, TROY, N. Y.

AFTER THE FIGHT.

The Effect of a Severe Drubbing on Paddy Ryan.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 7.—Immediately after the fight between Ryan and Sullivan at Mississippi City, Ryan was visited by a well known physician with the intention of giving him medical assistance if needed. His pulse was normal and the chief injuries consisted of a welt on the left side of his neck, where he had been struck a terrible blow in the second round, and gashed lips and a cut on the eye, together with a considerable number of contusions about the body. After the examination the doctor stated that Ryan was suffering from hernia, and must have been in great pain during the fight. He advised Ryan to forsake the prize ring. Ryan stated that he intended giving up pugilism, as he did not think he was suited by nature for that kind of business. He said he considered Sullivan a born prize fighter and a very formidable opponent in the ring.

Regarding his defeat, Ryan spoke very calmly, admitting that he had been fairly whipped, but at the same time stating that he was sick during the night, and partially disabled early in the action by the falling of his truss. He said he suffered great pain, and felt in no condition to fight, and but for the fact that people would have considered him a coward, he would not have appeared in the ring under the circumstances. Johnny Roach, Ryan's trainer, and W. E. Harding, representative of his backer, said they considered the fight a fair one and had no complaints to make regarding the result. Fox lost $8,500. Between $100,000 and $200,000 are supposed to have changed hands on the result.

From the start Sullivan acted on the offensive, attacking his opponent with a violence amounting almost to ferocity, breaking down Ryan's guards with his terrific blows, and following up the attack by clinching and wrestling. There was apparently but little science displayed, the rounds being short and sanguinary, ending in a fall or knock-down. This plan of attack could not have been carried out for any great length of time; but Sullivan's friends relied for success upon his quick work.

A Manager's Mistake.

Clara Louise Kellogg was too ill to appear at a concert in Lancaster, Pa. The manager in such a case usually tells the audience about it, and says that those who wish to retire may get their money back at the door, while the rest will be entertained by the company minus the star. But Manager Pond tried an experiment. He asked everybody to remain, pleading himself to return the mission fee to those who, on the following morning, set disappointed. There was a long line at the box office when he arrived next day, and dollars were paid out for coupons representing about half the house. None of the persons, however, had been so disgusted with the concert as to refuse to stay through it.

Public Building for Rochester.

The citizens of Rochester are in hopes of having a government building in their city, being inspired by the following dispatch from Washington yesterday: The report of the House Committee on Public Buildings favors erecting a government building in Rochester. It declares that the postoffice is a wooden building, so that in case of fire nothing could save its contents. The report specifies the rents paid for insufficient accommodations by different government officials, and says that less than a fourth of the revenue collected in Rochester in one year, or $300,000, would buy the site and construct a satisfactory building.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Rev. Sewall S. Cutting, D. D., of Brooklyn, died yesterday afternoon.

Nearly 300 employees of the Census Office at Washington, were dismissed yesterday.

The report of the House Committee on Public Buildings favors erecting a Government building at Rochester.

Andrew Olsom, of Chicago, last night drank three quarts of whiskey to ward off small-pox. He died in a few hours.

The search for bodies in the ruins of the old World building yesterday was fruitless. Four persons are still unaccounted for.

There is considerable excitement at Warwick, N. Y., over the discovery of a gold mine on a farm near the village of Amity. Surface ore assays $10 a ton.

A train on the Lehigh Valley Railroad struck a sleigh on Sugar North crossing. William Rapson was killed, his father's legs broken, and four others hurt.

The corporate existence of 293 national banks expires February 25, 1883. The charters of 99 banks expire earlier. Seventy five of the total number are in New York State.

Charles K. Kell, prevented from throwing himself before a train, at Winnepeg, Minn., climbed aerrick, and putting a chain around his neck, jumped, breaking his neck. Cause, domestic infelicity.

Great excitement prevails among the Catholics at Rahway, N. J., owing to an assault made upon the Sisters of Charity and the closing of their school by Father McCosker. Steps are being taken to close the church.

The House Ways and Means Committee has agreed upon a bill for the appointment of a Tariff Commission, consisting of nine members, to be appointed by the President, with the consent of the Senate, from civil life.

Lorenzo Relyea knelt with the worshippers in St. Bernard's Church Sunday, but stole out to the porch and wrenched the poor-boxes from their fastenings. He was arrested. There is intense indignation in Cohoes over the act.

Oscar Wilde at Rochester.

At Oscar Wilde's lecture in Rochester last night considerable annoyance was caused by the pranks of several Rochester University students, who occupied seats in the gallery. They bothered the lecturer and disgusted the audience, with hisses, groans and alleged aesthetic sighs, until a policeman attempted to eject them. At this a rumpus occurred and a portion of the gallery lights were extinguished. During the melee a student was struck across the face by a policeman, with a cane. This put something of a quietus on the affair and the students left the hall. Another of the students' brilliant moves was to hire an old dandy to dress in a swallow-tail coat, knee-breeches and a low-cut shirt, and with a large bouquet fastened to his coat, walked down the centre aisle during the lecture. Oscar never said a word to his tormentors, but occasionally stopped talking and looked very savagely at them. His house was exceedingly thin.

The question of healthfulness regarding the Baking Powder we use, is an important one. The result of a pure and healthy article is more satisfactory, although it may not be as profitable to the manufacturer. You can try "Good Luck" Baking Powder with the assurance that it contains no deleterious substance, and for the result, economy, &c., you can soon decide for yourself. Manufactured by

N. W. STILES.

Try the magic carpet sweeper $2. Only at Kenyon's.

BROTHER AND SISTER.

An Incident in a New York Police Station.

From the Sun.

He was short and thickset, with cropped hair that curved down over a low forehead. On the left side of his bullet-shaped head was a deep gash in front of the ear. The left eye was completely closed by a bulging, red bruise. As he leaned on the railing in front of the desk, in the Oak street police station on Saturday evening, he bore about as complete a resemblance to a brute as could be imagined. About half a foot of snow was on the ground, and the wind was whirling it down from the housetops. His ragged trousers were covered with it halfway to the knees. The doorman looked at him with indifference, but drew back when a pale faced, sharp-featured girl of about six years, followed the man and stamped the snow from—what? Bare legs and feet that were as red as if covered with blisters. Her hair, wet with snow, hung in tangled bunches over her ears. She had on only a calico skirt and a cotton waist. The doorman, as he motioned to look at the couple closely, evidently wondered how any human being could send such a child out in such a night.

"Sergeant, I got this as I got home to night," the man began, holding one hand over the damaged eye. "Just as I was—"

"Who gave it to you?" the Sergeant asked. "That's what I'm tellin'," the man continued, and the girl crept to his side and took one of his hands in hers. "Just as I was goin' up stairs the old man came out an' give me a kick."

"Who gave it to you?" "My father was—"

"Yes, sir, my father," the girl repeated with trembling lips. "Is he your brother?"

"Yes, sir," the girl replied, crying then. "And you want to have your father arrested?" the Sergeant asked of the man.

"Yes, sir."

"Then go to court in the morning and get a warrant."

The man put on his cap. The girl looked into her brother's face for an explanation of what she did not understand, and was clinging hold of his hand with one of hers, while with the other she wiped away tears from her eyes, and brushed back her wet hair as they went out into the whirling snow.

North Bergen Church on Fire.

The Presbyterian church, North Bergen, narrowly escaped destruction by fire last Sunday evening. After the prayer meeting, which was held in the lecture room connected with the church, was over, says the Rochester Democrat, the sexton, L. S. Sanders, pulled down a chandelier in order to put out the lamps, when the fastening in the ceiling gave way, letting the lamps fall to the floor, the flames and smoke nearly reaching the ceiling. Luckily help enough was at hand to put out the fire by the use of snow. The walls and woodwork were so much discolored by the smoke that they will have to be recalcined and repainted, and a part of the floor will have to be relaid. The church is not insured.

Miss Tompkins, wishing to make room for her spring goods, will sell for the next 30 days at cost.

Purchasers of Property.

Following are the real estate transfers recorded in the County Clerk's office yesterday.

Peter Broe bought 60 acres in Stafford of Hiram C. Addo for $4,200.

Edward O'Connor bought a lot on Church street, Batavia, for $600.

Moses Norton bought of Franklin Norton 40 acres in Alabama for $1,200.

STATE NEWS.

Oscar Wilde lectures in Buffalo to night.

Flanigan, Buffalo's murderer, has been further respited until March 24th.

Poles employed in the Cleveland quarry at Albion have the small-pox.

Buffalo is to have the Herdic coaches and 400 are to be built immediately.

Prof Swift of Rochester, has been awarded the Lalande astronomy prize at the annual meeting of the Academy of Sciences of Paris.

The Rochester strikers are still holding out for higher wages and the employers are firm in their determination to not accede.

Rochester's Police Gazette fiend, Lehmaier, is still pursuing his destruction of the flash periodicals in that city. Steele & Avery are the latest victims.

"Hell Street Jimmie" is the epithetous name by which an Oneida rough is known. As a warning, probably, the Rome Sentinel says he is at large.

David Polton, a convict in the Onondaga penitentiary, has been pronounced insane. He was riddled with bullets last November by officers, while attempting to escape from a dungeon in which he was confined for a month.

United Workmen.

The Grand Lodge of the State A. O. U. W. convened in Odd Fellows Temple in Rochester, and two hundred and seventy delegates answered to their names. Committees were appointed and reports received but no business of special importance was transacted. It was reported that during the past year eleven lodges were organized and four disbanded. There are now over 16,000 members and there is a balance of $1610 in the treasury. The election of grand officers will take place to-morrow morning.

For 25 cents we guarantee to cure the worst case of chilblains or remove any corn or bunion for same expense.

N. W. STILES.

A Vermont couple have married after a courtship of twelve years, during which the bride's father has put seven sets of hinges on the front gate.—Boston Post.

For 25 cents we guarantee to cure the worst case of chilblains or remove any corn or bunion for same expense.

N. W. STILES.

A Vermont couple have married after a courtship of twelve years, during which the bride's father has put seven sets of hinges on the front gate.—Boston Post.

For 25 cents we guarantee to cure the worst case of chilblains or remove any corn or bunion for same expense.

N. W. STILES.

A Vermont couple have married after a courtship of twelve years, during which the bride's father has put seven sets of hinges on the front gate.—Boston Post.

For 25 cents we guarantee to cure the worst case of chilblains or remove any corn or bunion for same expense.

N. W. STILES.

A Vermont couple have married after a courtship of twelve years, during which the bride's father has put seven sets of hinges on the front gate.—Boston Post.

For 25 cents we guarantee to cure the worst case of chilblains or remove any corn or bunion for same expense.

N. W. STILES.

A Vermont couple have married after a courtship of twelve years, during which the bride's father has put seven sets of hinges on the front gate.—Boston Post.

For 25 cents we guarantee to cure the worst case of chilblains or remove any corn or bunion for same expense.

N. W. STILES.

A Vermont couple have married after a courtship of twelve years, during which the bride's father has put seven sets of hinges on the front gate.—Boston Post.

For 25 cents we guarantee to cure the worst case of chilblains or remove any corn or bunion for same expense.

N. W. STILES.

A Vermont couple have married after a courtship of twelve years, during which the bride's father has put seven sets of hinges on the front gate.—Boston Post.

For 25 cents we guarantee to cure the worst case of chilblains or remove any corn or bunion for same expense.

N. W. STILES.

A Vermont couple have married after a courtship of twelve years, during which the bride's father has put seven sets of hinges on the front gate.—Boston Post.

For 25 cents we guarantee to cure the worst case of chilblains or remove any corn or bunion for same expense.

N. W. STILES.

A FRESH SUPPLY OF
VACCINE VIRUS!
Just Received!
Warranted Fresh and of the Best Quality, at
F. P. HINKSTON & CO.'S,
OPPOSITE THE ST. JAMES HOTEL.

BATAVIA MARKETS.

BATAVIA, N. Y., February 8, 1882

Wheat, white.....	$1.35	Flour, new process.....	$1.50
Wheat, red.....	1.40-1.42	Flour, Rival.....	1.50
Oats, white.....	.46	Flour, white, bbl.....	75
Oats, mixed.....	43-44	Flour, red, bbl.....	77
Corn.....	.50	Pork.....	7-50-8 00
Barley, 2 rowed.....	75-80	Chickens, dressed.....	10
" 6 rowed.....	85 90	Butter tub.....	25-27
Beans, marrow.....	3 00-3 75	Butter, roll.....	25-26
" medium.....	3 00-3 25	Lard.....	25-26
" pea.....	3 00-3 25	Eggs.....	20
" red.....	2 50	Cheese.....	11-15
Clover seed med.....	4 00	Apples, dried.....	5
" mam.....	4 50	Apples.....	2 00-2 50
Potatoes, Rose.....	90-1 00	Lard.....	12
Potatoes, Peeries.....	90-95	Salt.....	2 50
Wool.....	1 25-1 35	Solar Salt, per bag.....	35