A. C. BUELL, one of the unscrupulous Washington journalists who were given such a scathing by Judge Wylie during the Star-route trial the other day, was called to the witness stand yesterday to testify on the part of the defense. The witness was very non-committal and had no recollection of several transactions which the Judge took occasion to say no man of average intelligence could forget, and when Buell remarked that he would have to confess to not being of average intelligence the Court informed him with some show of righteous indignation that he would not be allowed to return evasive answers. Buell testified that he was now engaged on the Daily Critic and Sunday Capital, a controlling interest in the latter being owned by Brady. He purchased the Critic with money advanced by Brady. Merrick, counsel for the prosecution, read articles written by the witness containing sewer reflections upon the prosecution and and the Court. The reading created much amusement, even the Judge smiling when a particularly stinging passage referring to himself was read. The defendant's counsel endeavored to prevent the reading, but Judge Wylie said it was shown that he was employed by one of the defendants and he had written the most vituperative and libelous articles about everybody connected with the administration of justice. The Court wanted to see this thing as far as legitimate brought before the jury. Enough evidence has been presented in these trials, it would seem, to send Brady and some of his fellow plunderers to the penitentiary, and if they escape punishment all honest people will be surprised if not astonished.

THE PRESENT Speaker of the House, J. Warren Keifer, has been nominated for Congress, by the Republicans of the Eighth District of Ohio. Gen. Kennedy who was Keifer's principal competitor in the canvass, withdrew and seconded the nomination. Mr. Keifer has not been any great ornament in his present position, but he is likely to be returned, as his district has a Republican majority of about six thousand.

THE NATIONAL civil service reform association met in New York yesterday, and re-elected George William Curtis president. The treasurer's report showed the receipts to be $66,000, the disbursements $22,000. Evidently civil service reform has some substantial backers.

THE REPUBLICAN State Committee met in New York yesterday and selected Saratoga as the place for holding the State Convention on the 20th of September. The representation will be the same as last year, 496 delegates.

THE Albany Times says: Last Friday Mr. Fenner's oleomargarine law, making it a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of from $50 to $200, or imprisonment from ten to thirty days, or both fine and imprisonment, to sell the article except under its true name, went into effect. Mr. Chamberlain's law to prevent the coloring of artificial butter or cheese goes into effect September 1st. Both laws contain provisions to the effect that they shall not be construed so as to interfere with any patent granted by the United States. Oleomargarine when not colored is perfectly white, and consequently unsalable in that condition. The coloring process is done under two patents, which, it is claimed, conflict, and a brisk legal controversy is likely to result. When that is decided, it would look as if all that the butter-law makers had accomplished was to create one more monopoly.

THE SENATE and House passed River and Harbor bill yesterday over the President's veto, by a vote of 41 to 16 in the Senate and 122 to 59 in the House. The President's action is recorded to his credit just the same.

The President's Private Room.

From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

President Arthur brought with him from New York the miniature portrait of Mrs. Arthur, set in a finely wrought bronze frame. This picture, standing on a table in his bedroom, constitutes the household shrine, and is lighted in the evening hours by the shaded light of an antique bronze lamp. The private staircase from the first floor leads up to the President's private retreat, and it is shut off from the rest of the corridor by a heavy portiere of raw silk tapestry shot with gold and silver thread. A portiere of Turkish cloth on one side conceals the door of the pink and blue Pompadour apartments occupied by President Garfield, and a similar drapery hangs at the entrance to President Arthur's pale azure chamber. The arched window at the end is filled with blooming plants; the floor is covered with a part of the rich Turkey carpet sent some years ago as a present to this Government from the Sultan, the prevailing tint of which is a soft, rich orange, and the furniture is covered with dark, gray-green plush. A writing desk at one side of this sitting room has its racks filled with dainty, cream-tinted note paper, and the center table is strewn with the latest books and magazines. Several copies of the North American Review occupy a conspicuous place, and a rich Venetian lamp, with a fluted, tulip shaped globe of opal glass, stands on this table.

A Varied Performance.

Many wonder how Parker's Ginger Tonic can perform such varied cures, thinking it essence of ginger, when in fact it is made from many valuable medicines which act beneficially on every diseased organ.

DULL AND SALLOW—Eyes and skin denote a torpid liver, and weak Digestion, headache, and restless sleep arise from same cause. Remove them with ZOPESA now before you get worse. A few doses will do it.

Earnings of the State prisons for July were $35,823; expenses, $32,495; surplus, $3,328. Surplus earnings the past four months, $10,823.

A sure cure for impoverished blood, pimples, and sallow complexion in Brown's Iron Bitters. It will produce a healthy color, smooth skin, and is absolutely not injurious.

THE NARROW PREJUDICE—Which a few people hold against a patent medicine, ONLY because its formula isn't written in latin, which they can't read, is narrow-minded, and not in keeping with the progress of the age. ZOPESA will cure every case of Dyspepsia and Biliousness if the directions are followed.

SAD ACCIDENT.

MR. OSCAR CRAIGG blown up by a Premature Blast in the Rosendale Cement Quarry—DESTRUCTION OF AN EYE—Its subsequent Removal by Surgical Operation.

Mr. Oscar Craigg was foreman in a cement quarry at Rosendale, Ulster Co., N. Y. By an explosion one day in the quarry he lost an eye—lost it totally. Under the impression that the matter was less serious the local physician told Mr. Craigg that his eye was not lost wholly, but could be saved by treatment. The experiment was tried and failed. Worse remained behind, for he was in danger of losing the other also, through sympathetic inflammation. In this straits he consulted Dr. DAVID KENNEDY, of Rosendou, N. Y., who told him the injured eye must be taken out to save the other. To this Mr. Craigg demurred, and went back home in doubt. His local physician said: "Go to New York." To New York the patient went, and one of the most eminent oculists in the country, having looked at the case, said: "You have lost one eye entirely; go back and do what you can to save the other." Briefly, Dr. KENNEDY removed the ruined eye and treated Mr. Craigg with "KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY" to build up the system, and the result was successful.

Dr. KENNEDY'S great success as a Surgeon is due to the use of "FAVORITE REMEDY" in the after treatment.

Are you troubled with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Constipation or derangement of the Kidneys and Bladder? Use DR. KENNEDY'S "FAVORITE REMEDY." It will not disappoint you. Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.
