Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Mansir, whose daughter, Mrs. Daniel Bossey, has a home in Southampton, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Averill Dayton, a freshman at Smith College, to Mr. William H. G. Wilson, a graduate student there in Tuck Foundation, who is expected to graduate this spring. The two were married in East Hampton on August 19, and will make their home in New York City after their honeymoon at Pedernales Falls in Texas.

Mrs. Joseph Zenger, of Westfield, Mass., and Mrs. C. J. Edwards and Miss Jane Jones, of Taliesin, Fla., are on a two week's trip and will be in New York City on Monday, October 20, at 8 p.m. to attend a meeting of the John R. Paxton Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. Zenger and Mrs. Edwards are members of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and Miss Jones is a student at Barnard College, New York City. They will be in New York City for the remainder of the week and will return to their homes in Westfield and Taliesin, Fla., respectively, on October 20.

Mrs. Daniel Bossey, of East Hampton, and Mr. William H. G. Wilson, a graduate student at Smith College, were married in East Hampton on August 19, and will make their home in New York City after their honeymoon at Pedernales Falls in Texas.