OBITUARIES

DR. ALBERT SAYRE, EXPERT ON WATER

The East Hampton Town Police, on Saturday arrested a 28-year-old carjacked vehicle, the third incident in the past four days reported to the department. The carjacked was located in a 1965 Mustang, which was abandoned in a wooded area in the vicinity of the Triennial meeting of the American Geophysical Union. The victim, a 45-year-old man, reported that his vehicle was ripped off while driving on a country road in the early hours of the morning. The carjacked was later found abandoned in a wooded area, indicating that the suspects may have fled the area.

The East Hampton Town Police Department received a call at approximately 5:45 a.m. on Saturday from a motorist who reported seeing a vehicle traveling north on the Montauk Highway, heading towards the East Hampton Town Park. The vehicle was described as a black four-door sedan, believed to be involved in a carjacking.

Upon arrival, the officers found the vehicle unattended, with several broken windows and a damaged rear end. The vehicle was abandoned near a wooded area adjacent to the park, and the suspects were not present. The investigation is ongoing, and the department is seeking any information from the public that may assist in identifying the suspects.

The department is reminding the public to exercise caution while driving in the area, especially during the early hours of the morning. Residents are encouraged to report any suspicious activity to the East Hampton Town Police Department.

The department will continue to work diligently to ensure the safety of the community. Residents are urged to remain vigilant and report any suspicious activities to the police.

The East Hampton Town Police Department continues to provide a safe environment for all residents and visitors. The department is committed to working closely with the community to prevent crime and maintain public safety.

The department is grateful for the ongoing support of the community, and encourage residents to continue to report any suspicious activities.
