President's Message.

FELLOW-CITIZENS OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES: It gives me pleasure to congratulate you upon your return to the Seat of Government...

application I directed to be made for the delivery of a part of the archives of Florida, which had been carried to the Havana, has produced a royal order for their delivery...

of all nations with whom we have any intercourse. Any intervention in their affairs further than this, even by the expression of an official opinion, is contrary to the principles of international policy...

view of the considerations which led to the adoption of the Tariff system, but they are nevertheless important in enabling us to review the subject with a more thorough knowledge of all its bearings...

an end to a course of legislation calculated to destroy the purity of the Government, have urged the necessity of reducing the whole subject to some fixed and certain rule. As there never will occur a period, perhaps, more propitious than the present to the accomplishment of this object...

very little respecting the expediency of their immediate acceptance. They were however rejected, and thus, the position of these Indians remains unchanged, as do the views communicated in my Message to the Senate of February, 1831.
