

Democratic Republican Nominations. For Judge of the Court of Appeals—F. G. Jewett.

County Nominations. For Judge of the Supreme Court—J. W. Brown.

For Assembly—1st dist—Joseph A. Yard. 2nd dist—Freeman Hunt.

Judicial Qualifications. It will be remembered that, when the two candidates were brought out in this city for the City Judgeship, the principal claims put forth

Well we now have in this judicial district, two candidates nominated for the high office of justice of the supreme court.

A better man could not have been selected. Mr. Hasbrouck is not only a true Warg, whose whole soul is enlisted in the cause, but he is also a warg

With his armor always on, he has ever stood ready to help them—to take the laboring oar, nor lay it aside till the contest was over.

We trust that the intelligent voters of Kings county will bear in mind the peculiar qualities for which Mr. Hasbrouck has been nominated.

The New York Tribune will oblige us very much, when it credits articles to the Bulletin, if it will copy them word for word.

REMOVING THE CABINET.—No administration ever had such a series of proofs for demagogic statesmanship as this school boy cabinet of Old Zaik.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.—The unexpected defeat of G. W. Sanderson, (dem.) for the Legislature in Bradford etc., leaves the House 41 whigs

OHIO.—AMOS E. WOOD, dem., is elected to congress from the 6th (Seneca) district, in place of Rodolph Dickinson, deceased.

ROME AND FRANCE.—According to the Tribune's Paris correspondent, Rome is to be annexed to France.

THE HUNGARIANS, POLES, and those most conversant with Russian politics, believe that Nicholas will not recede from his demands on the Porte.

IMPORTANT SUIT.—The case of the Camden and Amboy Railroad Company, at the suit of Peter Briggs, involving the question of the legality of certain tolls charged by said company on merchandise is now up before the New Jersey Court of Appeals.

TAKING TIME BY THE FORELOCK.—The New York Correspondent of the Pennsylvanian, says some of the more enthusiastic young men here propose the immediate formation of a "Turkish Regiment."

LET US BE REMEMBERED.—That in 1847, the first year after the new Constitution, and while the Democrats were in power, the surplus of the Canal revenues applicable to the completion of the unfinished work, was about one million dollars;

THE FAIR, at Castle Garden, will be closed on Thursday next, on which day the awards will be announced, and the closing address delivered by the Hon. James Tallmadge, President of the Institute.

MICHIGAN AND THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT.—We learn from the Galea Advertiser that one of the Mining Companies have tendered the committee appointed to procure a stone from that state for the Washington Monument, a solid block of copper, of the required dimensions, delivered at their location.

Very Modest. The Advertiser of the 17th inst. speaks of the "unqualifiedly legitimate title of the whigs to places and offices," etc.

Now, whence comes the claim to this "legitimate title"? From the principle that "to the victors belong the spoils"? No: because the whigs repudiate such abominable doctrines as being peculiarly loco-foco.

Is the "title" derived from the fact that a majority of the representatives in congress are whigs? No: for it is democratic. Is it because the late elections throughout the United States indicate a flourishing increase of whig strength? No: for whiggery is going down, down, like the once daily decrease of United States bank stock.

Brittle indeed, therefore, is the tenure of "title to places," from such a source. And again the question is asked: Whence the claim to this "legitimate title for places and offices" of the whig party, as if they were a decided majority of the voters of the United States, instead of a lean minority growing less daily?

WHEN WILL IT END?—Our whig common Council has already borrowed EIGHTY THOUSAND DOLLARS and it is understood that at the meeting of the board this evening the finance committee will ask for TWENTY THOUSAND more.

South Brooklyn, some young fireman, not having the fear of the cells before their eyes, were helping themselves to grapes, from vines of their own.

AN' WHAT ARE YE'S ABOUT THERE? Is it after stalin the grapes—yer spalpeens? Be jabers, an' ye's must stop that same, or I'll be after locking ye's up in the Watch House—60 I will!

PECKSNIFF REBUKED.—The Albany Knickerbocker has the following bit-back to an attack of that hollow hearted journal, the N. York Tribune:

A SIGNAL OF DISTRESS.—The Albany Evening Journal, which has hitherto talked loftily of an easy victory over the "coalition," has suddenly awakened from his fancied security.

PERUANS REFUGEES.—The first detachment of the large company of refugees from persecution in the island of Madeira, who have been in charge of the American and Foreign Christian Union since their arrival in this country, took their final leave of us on Friday afternoon for their future home in Illinois.
