THE PEOPLE'S JOURNAL

H. HAGERTON AND PUBLISHER.

THE JOURNAL is issued every Thursday, in Brett's building, corner of Main street and Washington Place, Greenwich, Washington Co., N. Y. The 28th Number is issued with purple and gold, various other improvements. The Journal comprises 28 columns of choice matter, and the various departments we hope will receive the popular approbation and support. The first duty of the Journal is to advocate the interests and promote the welfare of the People of Northern New York in general of the Town of Greenwich and County of Washington in particular. While it is conducted in an independent manner, it sustains the principles of the party which have carried the country gloriously through a great war, and are struggling for a reconstruction of the Government on the basis of liberty and justice. It earnestly advocates an enlightened administration of the General Government, and by the County and Local affairs of the financial and other questions that may come before the country for consideration, it speaks for the behalf of the People. It will be, in fact, as it has been, truly THE PEOPLE'S JOURNAL—and in all its columns shall spare no efforts that energy, industry and perseverance may command to make it a VALUABLE FAMILY NEWSPAPER, a welcome guest to every fireside. In its LITERARY DEPARTMENT, its LOCAL DEPARTMENT, and in AGRICULTURAL and other Departments, great pains will be taken to make its columns specially interesting. We shall, from time to time, [illegible] BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES of leading citizens, and sketches of our Business, Commercial, Financial Manufacturing and other interests. It object is to make the Journal in every respect, to the Farmer, the Mechanic, the Merchant, the Professional man, and to all. So far as possible, its contents will be [illegible] and among the things we have the pleasure to announce as forthcoming, are
