Mr. Cappleman has made a very decided improvement in front of his premises on Bleeker street, by having a flag walk laid. The work was done without an order from the Board of Trustees,

The Hibernicon drew a crowd last Tuesday night, which filled Fourth Avenue Hall, as it is rarely filled. The performance was as jolly as ever, and Mr. John MacEvoy made the auditory shout with laughter whenever he appeared.

The usual meeting will be held in Temperance hall next Sunday afternoon. The meeting last Sunday was one of the most interesting ever held in the hall and the one next Sunday promises to be equally interesting.

Mrs. David Farrington died suddenly, on Wednesday morning, at her late residence, Fourth avenue near Fourth street. The funeral services were held at the residence to-day. Interment to-morrow (Saturday) at Greenwood Cemetery.

On Tuesday night last the barns of Mr. A. S. Bates, at Scarsdale, were burned, together with their entire contents, consisting of crops, wagons, harness, etc., also three horses. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

The petitions for lamp districts, or a lamp district, in the western part of the village are meeting with general approval. Enough have signed to enable us to say that Sixth, Seventh, Eighth and Ninth avenues will be lit, and we have no doubt the result on the other avenues will be equally good.

Messrs. Fred. Drews & Co., coal dealers at West Mt. Vernon, have sold out their business and their good will, together with the property on which the coal yard is situated, to Mr. Charles A. Marks. Mr. Marks is a young man of good business qualities and will doubtless soon rank among the successful merchants of the town.

Mr. Wm. Helms will open, to-morrow, a meat and vegetable market, in the building adjoining Hitchcock's grocery, on Third street, between Third and Fourth avenues. As will be seen by his circular, Mr. Helms proposes to bring about a complete revolution in the prices of beef, etc. We cheerfully commend him to our readers for a share of their patronage.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Corrigan, condjutor to his Eminence Cardinal M'Closkey, will administer the rite of Confirmation, at the Catholic Church, Tuckahoe, at 10 o'clock, Sunday morning, and will consecrate the new burial-ground, recently bought by the Rev. Mr. Keogh, from Mr. Lynch. The plot of ground consists of ten acres, near to the Stewart farm, and will undoubtedly be a popular place of interment.

List of letters remaining unclaimed at the Mount Vernon, Westchester Co., N. Y., Post Office, October 28, 1882. Ladies' list, Mrs. G. Hyde, Mrs. Keifer, Miss May Martin, Miss Johanna Moore, Miss Nettie Otis, Miss Martha Tompleton, Mrs. John Wood. Gents List—Carl Bossenroth, John Calkins, Harry Duncan, Mr. Dorrance, Bob. At a meeting of Alliance Temple of Honor, No. 17, held Tuesday evening, the following were selected as the officers of the Temple for the ensuing term :

The meeting of the Athenæum, at the residence of Mr. Geo. W. Colby, last Wednesday evening, was exceptionally interesting. What made it so was the piano playing by Mr. Colby, and the singing of the Weber Quartette, of Boston. Everyone of the quartette has a pure sweet voice, and they sing together with wonderful harmony and unity. They are now making a tour of the country, and the wish was frequently expressed that they would give a public entertainment here some time this season.

The Democrats have had two ratification meetings during the past week, one at the corner of Third avenue and Sixth street, and the other at Fourth Avenue Hall. The former was an open air meeting, at which Mr. S. M. Saunders presided, and addresses were delivered by Messrs. Jas. D. M'Clelland, Fred Whittaker and Robert Bach. At the meeting in Fourth Avenue Hall, Mr. Robert O. Glover presided, and addresses were delivered by Messrs. Waldo Hutchins, Gen. Crook, of Brooklyn, and Messrs. R. T. Creamer and Edwin L. Abbett, of New York.

On Wednesday last, at a pigeon shoot at Eastchester, Rex Jevons, a lad about nine years of age, son of Mr. Thomas Jevons, of Eastchester, was dangerously wounded in the head, by the accidental discharge of a gun, which another lad, named Heany, was pulling through the grass. Heany held the gun by the muzzle when it went off, the charge passing up his sleeve and out at the elbow, and then lodged in the side of young Jevons's face and neck. He was taken to the house of Mr. S. B. Odell, at which place he still remains, being in too critical condition to be moved to his home.

To-morrow (Saturday) night, the Symphony Society will give the first concert of the season. It has become so popular that Steinway Hall is too small to hold the thousands who intend its concerts. This season, the Academy of Music has been engaged, and there the concert of to-morrow night will be given. The program is made up of Beethoven's Heroic Symphony and overture, "The Consecration of the House," and the finale of the first act of Wagner's "Parsifal." It is in this that the famous four-storied chorus accompanied in part with church-bells is to be heard. The program gives promise of a concert full of beauty, grandeur and magnificence.

BOARD OF EDUCATION DISTRICT No. 5.

Regular meeting of the Board of Education of district No. 5, held Wednesday evening, November 1st, 1882. Present, Messrs. Appell, Brown, Hufeland, Lawrence and Rudolph. Minutes of previous regular and special meetings having been read and approved, the following bills were presented and read.

Clark & Maynard, $6 40 ; Sheldon & Co., $12 48 ; L. Prang & Co. $10 00 ; A. Lovell & Co. $1 00 ; C. B. Hufangel, $2 80 ; Ginn, Heath & Co., $10 56 ; Tower Mfg. Co., $10-60 ; Cowperthwaite & Co., $6 50 ; D. Appleton & Co., $18 23 ; Iveson, Blakeman & Co., $13 14 ; G. W. Smith & Co., $3 25 ; Chronicle, $6 75 ; Expressage, $3 40 ; Argus, $12-50 ; Drews & Co., $9 35 ; Feenser & Co., $6 80 ; Scribner & Co., $14 00 ; D. Steiger, $16 65 ; A. S. Barnes & Co., $35 55 ; all of which were reported correct, and ordered paid.

Mr. Rudolph reported that he had obtained some figures on the cost of cementing cellar and painting outside woodwork : for the former, $250 and $400, and for the latter, $325. For cornices and brick work, $350. Varnishing inside woodwork, $75 00. Mr. Hufeland offered some figures relative to painting the entire building.

Communication was received from Miss Wells relative to increase of salary as librarian. As the matter of payment of librarian was one entirely in hands of clerk, the communication was referred back.

Communication from Miss Pimley, relative to increase of salary, was received. On this subject, the chairman, without vacating the chair, did the talking for the whole Board. His course brought about a lively tilt between him and Mr. Hufeland. On motion of Mr. Lawrence, the salary of Miss Pimley was increased to $300 per annum, commencing October 1st.

By Mr. Lawrence. That Mr. Herman Behrman be appointed treasurer of the district for the ensuing year. Carried.

By Mr. Hufeland. That Mr. H. C. Apel be appointed clerk and librarian. Carried.

On motion of Mr. Rudolph, Mr. Henry Huhn was appointed janitor.

Mr. Rudolph moved that Mr. Torbeck be re-employed during the pleasure of the Board, at a salary of $50 per month. Carried.

Mr. Rudolph moved that Mr. Chris. Miller be employed to make up tax-roll of the district, as compensation of $25. Carried. Pay roll for October, $681 08 was presented and draft ordered for that amount.

There being no further business, the Board proceeded to make up budget of amount of extra appropriations to be asked for at special meeting of district, as follows :

Concreting cellar, $300. Painting Fences and woodwork outside of building, $325. Books and stationery, $300.

Gervase Evans was employed to keep the clocks in the school in repair, for one year, for the sum of $10.

The Board then adjourned.

A special meeting of the citizens of school district No. 5, was held in the school house on Thursday evening of this week.

At the last annual meeting of the district, the spirit for cutting down the estimates of the Board for current expenses, was so strongly manifested that they were left with insufficient funds to properly carry on the school, and the meeting of Thursday evening was called to make additional appropriations.

Mr. George E. Fuechsel was chosen chairman of the meeting, after which, the Board stated that they asked for $300 to concrete the cellar, $325 to paint the woodwork on outside of school and fences, and $300 for books and stationery.

After a very friendly discussion, relative to the several appropriations asked for, in which Messrs. Babcock, Schirmer, Rocket, Sternhagen, Lowenstein and others took a lively part, the following sums were voted : $400 to concrete the cellar. The amount asked for was thus increased, that a good job might be done. $150 to paint the woodwork on outside of school-house, and $300 for books and stationery.

The meeting then adjourned.

ELECTION AND SELECTION.

The time draws near for fall election,
And the time is here for the fall selection.
Of stoves for heating and for cooking,
Of which we would say in that connection,
If you wish those that are really profection,
Substantial, well made and elegant looking,
We have them, and invite your close inspection.

"High Art" and " Low Feed," Joy and Hub Royal,
Something new indeed, the result of artistic toil,
Oscar said you know, that our stoves made him wild,
So ugly, unesthetic and those terms were too mild,
He could not have seen this years designs,
The Duchess, Triumph and Garland's so fine,
Where this true utility and beauty are combined,
Will soon dispel ices, and for sale at low prices,

Mrs. D. Ferguson, First street.

WOODLAWN.

Mr. W. Nilsson has commenced the building of an addition to his green-house.

On Tuesday night last, sneak thieves paid a visit to the clothes line of Mrs. Sichel, on Woodlawn Heights, and stripped it of every article on it.

The Hayes perforated metalic blinds on the office of Messrs. Caterson & Clark, are, by no means, new. They were put on when the office was built, four years ago. Mr. Clark has the same kind of blinds on his residence in Mt. Vernon.

Messrs. Caterson & Clark have just erected in Woodlawn Cemetery, on the L. W. Parker plot, a handsome Quincy granite monument, at a cost of about $6,000. The monument is on a base 6 by 7 ft., and stands 22 feet high.

Hats—Mens' and Boys', below city prices, at W. W. Howe's, Chronicle Building.

—Go to A. J. Gardner's, No. 5 Fourth ave., for all kinds of chicken feed.

WILLIAM'S BRIDGE.

The Oak Valley Baseball Club contemplate giving a ball, on Thanksgiving eve, in Havens's Hall.

A complimentary ball to Mrs. Elizabeth Heilman, is in contemplation. It will probably be given some time this month.

At last the authorities of New York City are building a guard fence along the embankment at the approach to the bridge over the Bronx.

The Oak Valleys and the Squibs played a game of ball on Sunday last, which resulted in a victory for the former, by a score of 24 to 2. The Oak Valleys were to have played the Lehighs.

Last Tuesday (Hallow Eve) night, the depredations of the boys around William's Bridge were shameful. Not content with removing gates and signs, and putting them in out of the way places, they broke to pieces, a sign belonging to Martin Sailor. The best way to put a stop to such depredations is to make an example of some of the miscreants.

—Give relief to sick or unhealthy horses, cows and poultry, by using Ward's medicinal food, for sale only at A. J. Gardner's, No. 5 Fourth avenue.

Silk Hats—First Quality—by one of the most stylish and noted manufactures in New York—from $5 to $6, at W. W. Howe's, Chronicle Building.

WESTCHESTER.

The New York Catholic Protectory has opened a grocery store in the Protectory building.

A liberal reward will be paid for the discovery of the person who cut the lead pipe in the well on the property of Mr. Clinton.

"Ancient Egypt and the Modern War" will be the subject of an illustrated lecture, in the Town-Hall, by Prof. P. W. Bedford, on Tuesday evening, 14th inst.

List of letters remaining unclaimed in Westchester P. O., Nov. 1st, 1882. Ladies' list—Miss Cassie Brown, Miss Margret Kinnell, Miss Maggie Lenahan, Miss Irene Reynolds.—Gents' list—Peter Marten, Mr. Joseph Mason, Mr. Thomas Randle.

On Tuesday last, Officer Bradley arrested, in New York, George Livermore, charged by Mr. William Watson with petit larceny. Livermore was lodged in the cells in the town hall, on Wednesday.

Mr. Nack has had his barn moved on the lot recently purchased by him, and is having an addition built thereto, the same size as the old building. A new fence would add much to the appearance of the premises.

The difference between Messrs. Mullen and Clinton, relative to the division line, has finally been settled by a survey made by Mr. S. S. Haight, civil engineer. Now that this matter is settled, we may expect to see a new fence erected.

A short time since, the New York Catholic Protectory was ordered by the State Board of Health to extend the outlet of their sewer, by laying a pipe to low water mark. The officers of the institution objected to the order, and appealed to the Health Board of the town, to determine whether the sewer was a nuisance. On Tuesday last, the Board of Health, accompanied by health officer McDermott, inspected the outlet of the sewer, and at once pronounced it a nuisance and ordered the extension to be made forthwith. It will cost from $20,000 to $25,000 to extend the sewer to low water mark..

Rev. Father M'Evoy received a very elaborate reception, on Friday evening, from the St. Raymond's Literary Association. The assistance rendered by the young ladies, (a new feature), was keenly appreciated, especially the vocal duet by the Misses Snyder, and the brilliant piano solo by Miss C. E. Waters. Mr. Leonard's reading was natural and pleasing, and Messrs. Dougherty and M'Grory's rendition of the "Lurboard Watch," admirable. The real fun of the evening, however, was contributed by Mr. J. K. Murphy. His drollery, wit and "varied expressions" were magical, in their effects, even the gravest roaring with "inextinguishable laughter" Father M'Evoy seemed to feel actually refreshed instead of wearied by the entertainment, and his response to the association was unusually happy and genial.

CITY ISLAND AND PELHAM.

At two o'clock last Saturday morning, the old Pelham Bridge Hotel, comprising two buildings, one on each side of the road at the southern end of Pelham Bridge, was burned to the ground. Thirty years ago, Larry Fowler became landlord. After Fowler, Geo. P. Arcularius ran the house for a number of years. Recently, R. S. Spurge has kept the place. Col. Delancy Kane's Tally-ho coach always stopped at the inn, when running to New Rochelle. The cause of the fire is unknon. The loss is $15,000. Mr. Spurge's principal loss is on furniture on which there was but a small amount of insurance.

At Cudl's ship yard, two schooners are on the ways undergoing repairs. The schooner Reindeer is having a general overhauling, and schooner John T. Long is being fitted up for service. Mr. Cudl expects to have the new chooner ready to launch by Saturday, the 11th inst. The keels for the two new schooners will soon be laid.

—Miss Gound has just received a very large assortment of new millinery goods, comprising all that is new and desirable in that line. Particular attention is called to the new sealskin beaver hats. An early call will fully repay customers and friends. No. 100 Fourth ave., Mt. Vernon.

—New farina, by bag or barrel, at A. J. Gardner's No. 5 Fourth ave.

NEW ROCHELLE.

The work of raising Mr. E. Lambden's building is being rapidly pushed to completion. When finished, it will be a great improvement.

The Cowdrey property, on Main street, opposite Rose Street, has been purchased by Mr. Leonard Lang, for $3,075. The property consists of a two story building, and lot 42x200 feet.

On Monday evening last, a cowardly assault was committed on Mr. Leonard Lang, by one Fred. Fowler, who had been in the employ of Mr. Lang for the past four years, and a man in the employ of Mr. Chas. Hoffmester. Fowler left Mr. Lang's employ a few days ago, and after an all day's carousal with his friend, on Monday, entered Lang's market, in the evening, and seizing Mr. Lang by the arms, held him while the other fellow beat him in the face with his fists.

—Berry's Store.—Fall Trade.—Will our old friends—and their name is legion—in and around Mt. Vernon and villages adjacent thereto, to whom Berry's store is as familiar as household words, do us the additional favor of telling their newly arrived neighbors, of the entire confidence they have always reposed in trading in this long established and popular family emporium? An invariable rule of this store has been to make no announcement that can't be sustained ; from this rule there will be no digression.

In stating then that we propose to offer to the public, during this fall season, from a stock close in value to $30,000, embracing a variety in dry goods, fancy goods, notions, etc., impossible to detail, such inducements to buy as will make it apparent that both time and money are lost in running down to New York City, we state what will prove to be positively correct. Of course this applies only to useful and substantial goods, and not to articles of luxury, generally more ornamental than useful.

The four-fifths of the goods sold in this store come direct from manufacturers and first hands, expenses are lower than in city stores, and goods should be sold accordingly. This is precisely what is done at Berry's Store.

Judge Barrett, in Supreme Court, Chambers, last Tuesday confirmed the report of the referee granting a decree of divorce to Edward A. Lauten in his suit for divorce from his wife, Mary Lauten. The defense was an alleged coudonation at the wife's offense by the husband and the following document was produced as proving his sanction of her unlawful intimacy upon which the divorce suit was based : "Mount Vernon, June 5, 1881. I, Mary Lauten, of this place, heretofore wife of Edward A. Lauten, consent to be sold to F. Jansen for the consideration of $1 legal money." Upon the same paper was the following : "Received of F. Jansen $1 considerwlon money for which I transfer all my rights to said Mary E. Lauten." Edward A. Lauten. Judge Barrett says : "This pretended sale was plainly a very poor and stupid joke to which the defendant and Jansen have sought to give life. It may have quieted what was left of their consciences, but it cannot deceive any one of ordinary common sense. Justice is not to be frustrated by such trifling."

The transfer of the Air Line road to the Consolidated was effected Wednesday by the following vote : "That the president be authorized to deliver possession immediately of the railroad property under the lease this day approved by the stockholders and dated August 31, 1882, without waiting for the execution or approval of the lease by the lessee corporation. All the rights of this company under the pooling contract shall revive as of and from October 1, 1882 ; but that if said lease is so executed and approved by the lessee corporation, said lease shall be deemed in force as of and from October 1, 1882."—Palladium.
