THE CIRCUS TO-DAY.

Bucheller & Doris' Inter-oceanic Circus, which is exhibiting on the Jones & Gifford park to-day, had a good night's performance.

UNCLE SAM TO ROSCOE.

Now, Roscoe, I've noticed you might have some sense you're eternally in! First, under ten over my coat!

"If he'll let me by it all day, I'll be willing to see it," you say; "But that is exactly the thing; When a kilo on a cloud is a thing."

PERSONALS.

Mr. Henri Hall returned to New York to-day. Miss Mary Moran of Olean, is in town visiting friends.

HYMENEAL.

The Hulgust-Robb Wedding Last Evening - The Reception. At half past eight o'clock last evening the available seating space in the Swedish M. E. Church was fully occupied.

One room was devoted to the display of the wedding gifts, which were prodigious in number and many of them of considerable value.

The newly married pair received their guests in the parlor. The bride was hand somely attired in light blue tulle, trimmed with blue satin of the same shade.

The New St. James Hotel, Corry. We have very seldom seen so neat, elegant and well arranged a hotel as the new St. James Hotel, Corry.

THE SANGAROUND-SUMMER ANNUAL MEETING.

At the regular semi-annual meeting of the Jamestown Sangarounds held last evening, the trustees read their report which indicated that the Society is in a very prosperous condition.

"FIRST NATIONAL" CORN.

There is growing in the vegetable garden of Mr. Alonzo Kent, President of the First National Bank, some of the most thrifty corn to be seen in this region.

ALMOST AN ACCIDENT.

As the iron cage was being prepared for the "Champion Harness Maker" this morning, he looked like a deer, with his ears and whiskers like a ass, and as the "champion" had a fit of raving yesterday, owing to the heat of the weather, which of course had the effect of driving him to the wall.
