Notice of Mortgage Sale.

WHEREAS, default has been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage executed by Smith Dorney and Elizabeth his wife, of the town of Hempstead, Queens county and State of New York, both being then over twenty-one years old to Charles Brower of the same town, county and State, dated the eighteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and duly acknowledged by said Mortgagor on the 18th day of March, A. D. 1854, and recorded in Queens county Clerk's Office, in Liber 74 of Mortgages, page 396, on the 5th day of May, 1854, to secure the payment of the sum of $150, with interest thereon at and after the rate of six per cent. per annum.

And whereas the said mortgage is now held and owned by the said Charles Brower, the subscriber hereto; and whereas the amount of principal and interest claimed to be due upon said mortgage at the time of the first publication of this notice is one hundred and sixty-nine dollars and fifty cents.

Now therefore notice is hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and duly recorded as aforesaid, and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described, at PUBLIC AUCTION, at the HOTEL of NEWBERY NEWBURY, in the town of HEMPSTEAD, Queens county, on SATURDAY, the 23d day of AUGUST, A. D., 1862, at 1 o'clock, P. M., of that day.

The said premises are described in said mortgage as follows, to wit: All that certain piece or parcel of cleared land and premises, situate in the town of Hempstead aforesaid, adjoining the road or highway leading from Valentine Wood's to Near Rockaway, and severally bound and bounded as follows: On the south by land formerly belonging to Jacob Brower, deceased; on the west by land of Elbert Watts; on the north by the aforesaid Smith Dorney, till it comes to the aforesaid road or highway; and thence running southerly by the said road or highway to the place of beginning, containing three acres be the same more or less as the several fences now stand.

Together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining.

Dated May 13th, 1862. CHARLES BROWER, Mortgagee.

Notice of Mortgage Sale.

WHEREAS, James W. Barber and Ruth Ann his wife, of the city, county and State of New York, on the 14th day of October, A. D., 1858, made executed and delivered a certain Indenture of mortgage bearing date on that day, to James N. Barber of Little Falls, in the county of Herkimer, in the State of New York, for the purpose of securing the payment to the said James N. Barber, of the sum of two thousand dollars, and interest thereon from the date of said mortgage, at and after the rate of seven per cent. per annum, which said mortgage was recorded in the Queens county Clerk's Office, in Liber No. 101 of Mortgages, page 218, on the 18th day of October, 1858, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

And whereas the said James W Barber on the fifteenth day of September, A. D., 1855, made, executed and delivered a certain Indenture of Mortgage bearing date on that day to John P. Rhodes of the town of Hempstead, Queens county, for the purpose of securing the payment to the said John P. Rhodes of the sum of three thousand dollars with interest thereon at and after the rate of seven per cent. per annum, which said mortgage was recorded in Queens county Clerk's Office, in Liber 83 of Mortgages, page 479, on the 15th day of September, A. D., 1855, at eleven o'clock and fifty minutes, A. M.

And whereas the said James N. Barber, did by assignment dated the fourteenth day of March, A. D., 1861, and recorded in the Queens county Clerk's Office, in Liber No. 115 of Mortgages, page 261, on the 14th day of March, 1861, at six o'clock, P. M., of that day, duly grant, bargain, sell, assign and transfer the mortgage firstly above mentioned and referred to, together with the bond or obligation therein described, unto John W. Demott of the town of Hempstead, Queens county.

And whereas the said John P. Rhodes in and by an assignment of mortgage dated the eighth day of February, A. D., 1860, and recorded in the Queens county Clerk's Office, in Liber No. 108 of Mortgages, page 319, on the 17th day of February, 1860, at thirty minutes past eleven o'clock, A. M., did duly assign, transfer and set over the said mortgage secondly above set out, unto the said James N. Barber, together with the bond or obligation therein refered to, and whereas the said James N. Barber, in and by an assignment of mortgage dated the 14th day of March, 1861, and recorded in the Queens county Clerk's Office, in Liber No. 115 of Mortgages, page 259, on the 14th day of March, 1861, at 6 o'clock, P. M., did sell, assign, transfer and set over unto the said John W. Demott, the said mortgage secondly hereinabove mentioned and referred to, together with the bond or obligation therein referred to.

And whereas the said mortgages above referred to and assigned as above mentioned each contained a power of sale providing that if default should be made in the payment of the sum of money secured in and by said mortgages or of the interest or any part thereof that might grow due thereon, that then it should be lawful for the party of the second part therein, the mortgagee to sell and dispose of the said mortgaged premises. And whereas default has been made in the payment of the money secured to be paid in and by said mortgages according to the condition thereof; and whereas both of said mortgages are now held and owned by the said John W. Demott; and whereas there is now at the time of the first publication of this notice, due and owing upon the mortgage first herein above set out and referred to, the sum of two thousand four hundred and ninety dollars of principal and interest.—And whereas there is now due and owing upon the mortgage secondly hereinabove set out and referred to the sum of three thousand, three hundred and thirty-eight dollars of principal and interest. Now therefore by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgages contained, notice is hereby given that said mortgages will be foreclosed by a sale of said mortgaged premises at PUBLIC AUCTION, at the Hotel of JAMES H. JENNINGS, at FAR ROCKAWAY, in the town of Hempstead, Queens county, on THURSDAY, the SEVENTEENTH day of JULY, A. D. 1862, at twelve o'clock, noon of that day, the mortgaged premises which are described in said mortgages as follows:

All that certain Farm, piece or parcel of land situate on the northerly side of Far Rockaway Neck, in the town of Hempstead, Queens county, bounded as follows: commencing at the south-west corner thereof, by land of Henry Hewlett and running north thirty-eight degrees and thirty-five minutes west, seventy seven chains and thirty links by land and meadow sold by said John P. Rhodes to Samuel Pearsall, until it comes to a small ditch on the meadow; thence running easterly a short distance to a small creek; thence southeasterly by said small creek about fourteen rods to a branch of said small creek running out easterly; thence running easterly by said branch of the small creek until it comes to a dug ditch by land of Henry Mott, deceased; thence running southeasterly by said dug ditch or brook and by the fence by land of said Henry Mott, deceased, about one hundred and seventy-eight rods to the middle of the highway; thence running southwesterly along the middle of said highway about twelve chains and ninety-five links, thence running southeasterly by the fence by land sold by said John P. Rhodes to Jacob Abrams, about four chains and sixty links to the land reserved for a burying ground; thence running by said land reserved for a burying ground southwesterly eighty-eight links; thence southeasterly one chain and fifty-eight links to land of Henry Hewlett, dec'd.; thence running by said land southwesterly four chains and thirty-two links to the place of beginning, containing one hundred acres, more or less; reserving, however, for the use of the public the highway through said premises. Also reserving a right of way to the burying ground from the highway. Being the same premises that were conveyed to the said party of the first party by the said John P. Rhodes, by deed bearing even date with these presents, and this mortgage is given to secure a part of the purchase money thereof

That no suit or proceeding at law or in equity has been instituted to recover the amounts due on either of said mortgages, or any part thereof; that by such sales such mortgages will be foreclosed and all equity of redemption thereof.

Dated April 15th, 1862. JOHN W. DEMOTT, Mortgagee.
ALEXANDER HAGNER, Attorney for Mortgagee.

Mortgage Sale.

WHEREAS default has been made in the payment of the sum of two hundred and forty-four dollars and ninety cents, which is claimed to be due at the date of this notice, on a certain mortgage, dated the 6th day of Oct., 1853, made and executed by John Hill of the city of Williamsburgh, county of Kings and State of New York, to James Strong, of the town of Flushing, Queens county and State of New York, and John Elliott and David S Duncomb of the city, county and state of New York, and recorded in the office of the Clerk of the county of Queens, in Liber 71 of Mortgages, page 431, on the 25th day of Nov., 1853, at 12 o'clock and 30 minutes, P. Sanders by assignment, dated the 3d day of December, 1856, and recorded in said office of the Clerk of the county of Queens, in Liber 90 of Mortgages, page 459, December 27, 1856, at 9 o'clock, A. M. The premises described in and covered by said mortgage are as follows:

"All those certain lots, pieces, or parcels of land, situate, lying, and being in the township of Newtown, county of Queens, and state of New York, being the lots, known and designated by the numbers two hundred and sixty-seven (267), and three hundred and seventy (370), on a map entitled 'Sectional Map No. 2 of the village of West Flushing, in the township of Newtown, Queens county, Long Island, New York, surveyed June 1, 1853, by Clerk and Bacon, city surveyors, Jersey City,' which map is filed in the office of the Clerk of the county of Queens, at Jamaica, Lot No. two hundred and sixty-seven (267), is bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point on Grand avenue, distant from Locust street in a southwesterly direction six feet and six inches (6 6-12 feet,) thence running in a southerly direction by and with Lot No. two hundred and sixty-six (266) ninety-five (95) feet; thence in a westerly direction by and with Lots Nos. two hundred and fifty-eight (258) and two hundred and fifty-seven (257) eighty feet six inches (80 6-12 ft.) to said Grand avenue; and thence in a northeasterly direction by and with said Grand Avenue one hundred and twenty-four (124) feet to the place of beginning. Lot [illegible] two hundred and seventy is bounded as follows: Beginning at the point of intersection of Grand avenue and Linden Street, and thence running [illegible] southerly direction by and with said Linden street one hundred and eleven (111) feet to No. three hundred and seventy-one (371); thence in a westerly direction by and with said Lot No. [illegible] and seventy-one (371) eighty feet six inches (80 6-12 ft.) to said Grand avenue; and thence in a northeasterly direction by and with said Grand Avenue one hundred and thirty-six feet ten inches (136 10-12 ft.) to the place of beginning; being the same premises conveyed by deed to the said John Hill by the said James Strong and Sarah his wife, John Elliott and Caroline his wife, and David S Duncomb, and said mortgage being given to secure the payment of part of the consideration or purchase money of the said premises."

Now, therefore, in pursuance of a power of sale contained in said mortgage and of the statute in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that the said mortgaged premises, and now covered by said mortgage, will be sold at public auction, at the JAMAICA HOTEL, kept by WM. DURLAND, in the village of Jamaica, in the county of Queens, the 12th day of JULY, 1862, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon.

Dated April 7, 1862. JOSHUA C. SANDERS, Assignee.
