Third Term.

WASHINGTON, October 24.—Intimate friends of the President say that he has made no allusions whatever to them concerning the question of the third term, nor is it known that any one has mentioned the subject to him in conversation, and further, he has in no way expressed himself in such a manner as to induce them to believe he has any aspirations in that direction. They further remark, although much has been said and written upon the subject, the question has not come to him in the form requiring a reply, and, therefore, any utterance he might might make would not only be gratuitous and intrusive, but contrary to usages.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—At a Republican rally at Cooper Institute last night, Gov. Dix, while addressing the meeting, hearing loud cries of "how about third term?" said: "I did not come to thrust any opinion of mine into this canvass; but since I am asked the question, I will answer it frankly lest a misconstruction should be put upon my silence. I say, then, distinctly, that I am not in favor of third term."

IF ALCOHOLIC STIMULANTS—are taken into the blood the heart works faster, and this unnatural speed wears out the vital machinery. All intoxicating nostrums advertised as "tonics," "renovaters," &c., produce this disastrous effect, and should be rejected. DR. WALKER'S VEGETABLE VINEGAR BITTERS—an Invigorant without the curse of alcohol—is everywhere supplanting these poisons. 49-4*

Fifth and Last Gift Concert in Aid of the Public Library of Kentucky.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

The management have determined to have the drawing of the Fifth and Last Gift Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky, on the 30th day of November next. We believe now that all the tickets will be sold, and that the drawing will be a full one; but whether all are sold or not, the drawing will nevertheless certainly come off on the day appointed.

The special object of this card is to call a meeting of the ticket-holders at Public Library Hall, on the 20th of November, to make arrangements in connection with the committee appointed by the Trustees to superintend the counting of the tags representing the numbers of tickets sold. While there is no actual necessity for the presence of ticket-holders, as under our arrangements the interests of all are equally cared for, yet at the same time I would greatly prefer that as many of those interested as can, would attend this meeting and see each for himself how perfectly fair and impartial the distribution must be.

Every arrangement has been made for the drawing—but little more than a month remains for the sale of the remainder of the tickets, and whatever is done must be done promptly.
