By Mrs. Eva Dean EV 4-4310

THE AMOUNT OF MONEY collected by First Methodist Sunday school students for the UNICEF project was reported erroneously last week in this column. The figure should have read $136.05, which has been sent to the United States Committee for UNICEF.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Raymo, Elm Circle, Norfolk, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter Ruth to Douglas Badger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Badger and the late Mrs. Anne Palmer Badger, Ogdensburg, N.Y. Miss Raymo is a graduate of Norfolk-Norfolk Central School and of Syracuse Comptometer School. She is presently employed by General Motors Chevrolet Division, Massena, N.Y. Mr. Badger graduated from Ogdensburg Free Academy and is also employed by General Motors. No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Jeanette Goedeke of Malone, N.Y., was guest speaker at last week's regular meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Norfolk Methodist Church. The meeting was held in the church parlors with the following ladies as hostesses: Hazel Bixby, Doris Maurer, Mand Wing, Edith Talcott, Mrs. Dean Shaw and Mrs. Harry Steinbarg. The meeting was in charge of the program, which featured a short but impressive Thanksgiving service.

Miss Goedeke spoke of her work among several rural churches in the Malone area, emphasizing the need for bringing some religious influence into the lives of the children in a region where churches often have to be closed for several months of the year because of severe weather conditions.

The nominating committee reported their selection of an interim president, to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Robert Hill, who resigned because of ill health. Mrs. Merrill Warner was unanimously elected and closed the business meeting. Chairman of hostesses for December will be Alberta Shaw, with Mildred Hill and Frances Hazen in charge of the program.

The Open House at the Norfolk-Norfolk High School, in observance of National Education Week with members of the Student Council acting as guides for the parents. Many of the parents took advantage of the opportunity to consult with Guidance Directors, teachers and other personnel. At the Grade Schools, also, there was a steady stream of visitors throughout the afternoon, with teachers in the various classrooms to explain the curriculum and materials, and discuss any individual problems.

Mrs. Ralph Clarke entertained at a party at her home on Nov. 12, in honor of the 8th birthday of her daughter Gail. Those attending were Peggy Hall, Kathy Lyons, Candace Farnsworth, Lena Kaiser, Laura Paige, Mary Jane Tye and Faye Marie Clarke. Games were played with prizes awarded, after which hostess and guests enjoyed delicious refreshments. Gail received many lovely gifts.

The Norwood Fire Department was called out three times last Thursday between noon and three o'clock. All three fires were listed as grass fires.

The first call came at noon when a blaze had started next to the road at the old airport near the Burnham's Corners road. The second call was at Luther Bartlett's farm home on the River Road, where a grass fire was found to be burning in two different areas of the farm. Four or five acres of land was burned off before the fire was brought under control, about 150 feet away from the main barn. The last call came from Kinsmans Farm Store where a field at the rear of the store was on fire.

Twenty-five men under the direction of Fire Chief Rodney Murray answered all calls with the tanker, No. 3 pumper and the emergency truck.
