From the North West Army.

IMPORTANT NEWS.

[The text is not fully legible, but it seems to be discussing military events and orders.]

From the National Intelligencer—Extract of a Letter from General Harrison.

[The text contains a letter from General Harrison, discussing military matters.]

Vermont Election.

The Vermont legislature met on Tuesday last. The elections for the speakers of both houses of the Assembly, and the several other officers of the government, were also held. The returns show a general Democratic majorities in both houses, and the same is expected to be the case on the legislature. The governor, Mr. Anthony, is re-elected by a large majority.

[The text discusses the proceedings of the Vermont legislature and the outcome of the elections.]