WHEREAS NATHANIEL MARSHALL and ZEPHANIAH BRUMLEY, of the town of Plattsburgh in the county of Clinton and State of New-York, for securing to William Wilson of the county of Columbia and state aforesaid, the sum of one thousand three hundred and seventy one dollars, with the lawful interest thereon, DID, on the first day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, mortgage unto the said William Wilson, ALL that certain tract or parcel of land situate, lying and being in Beekman Township and county of Clinton, on the west side of Lake Champlain, known by the division map of said township by name of lot number one hundred and sixteen beginning at the south-west corner of lot number one hundred and fifteen at a stake five links west from a black ash tree cornered and marked 1c2, 105, 115, 116 - thence north forty eight chains fifty seven links to a stake nineteen links south east from a beech tree cornered and marked 115, 116—thence west forty seven chains and eight links to a cedar tree, 116, 117—thence south forty eight chains fifty seven links to a stake ten links south west from an iron wood saplin marked 101; 102, 116, 117—thence east to the place of beginning, containing two hundred & twenty eight acres and a half— And whereas default has been made in the payment of the said sum of one thousand three hundred and seventy one dollars, and the lawful interest on the same: NOTICE is hereby given, that the said mortgaged premises will be sold at public vendue, to the highest bidder, at the office of Palmer and Walworth in the village of Plattsburgh on the fourth day of December next, at one o'clock in the afternoon of that day. Dated May 29, 1819.

WILLIAM WILSON,
By his Attorneys.

NOTICE is hereby given, that WHEREAS default has been made in the payment of the annual rent on a mortgage given by Jesse Howes, to the New Loan Officers of the county of Clinton, dated the twenty seventh day of June, 1792, for securing the principal and interest annually of fourteen pounds one shilling and three pence of one quarter of Lot number six, in the Location of 17983 acres in Peru, in said county of Clinton, containing one hundred and six acres, as the same is particularly described in said mortgage, the same lying adjoining to the south east corner of Lot number ten in said Location

And whereas, also, default has been made in the payment of the interest due on another mortgage, executed by NATHAN BERMAN, to the New Loan Officers of Clinton County, dated the twenty seventh day of June, 1792, for securing the principal and annual interest of thirty seven pounds ten shillings, on lot number twenty four, of the one hundred acre lots in the general division of Plattsburgh, in the tract of land set apart and sold cheap for the encouragement of settlers, containing one hundred acres of land.

Therefore, the said several premises above mentioned, will be severally sold at public vendue, at the Court House, in the town of Plattsburgh, in said county, on the third Tuesday of September next, at two o'clock, in the afternoon, to the highest bidder, to satisfy the said principal and interest on the said mortgages respectively.

Dated Plattsburgh, May 26, 1819.

JOHN PALMER,
AARON FAIRCHILD
New Loan Officers.

WHEREAS JOHN CARGIEN, of the town of Malone, in the county of Franklin, on the eighteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, DID mortgage unto Daniel Greepo, ALL that certain piece or parcel of land situate in that part of the town of Malone called number six, and being a part of lot number forty, as surveyed by Joseph Berman, bounded as follows: to wit —Beginning six chains and sixty links due east of a hemlock stump standing south west from the south west corner of the tavern house, late occupied by John H. Russel, in the village of Malone; thence running north one chain and seventy five links; thence east one chain and fifty links; thence south one chain and seventy five links; thence west one chain and fifty links to the place of beginning.

And whereas default has been made in the payment of three hundred and seventy five dollars with interest, secured by the said mortgage—And whereas the said mortgage has been duly assigned to John F. Dimick—Now therefore NOTICE is hereby given that by virtue of a power contained in the said mortgage, the said mortgaged premises will be sold at public auction at the house of Joel Amsden in the town of Malone, on the seventh day of January next, at one o'clock in the afternoon.

Dated July 3d, 1819.

JOHN F. DIMICK.

Sales of Lands for TAXES.

STATE OF NEW-YORK, }
Comptroller's Office. }

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that lists of certain lands liable to be sold for taxes, have been forwarded to the several counties in this state, in order to be deposited in the several county treasurers' and town clerks' offices, respectively, for the information of all persons concerned; and that the said lists may be examined at either of the above offices, at all reasonable hours: And notice is hereby also given, that on Thursday, the seventh day of October next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the capitol in the city of Albany, and on the next succeeding days, I will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, so much of each lot, piece or parcel of land mentioned and described in the said lists, as will be necessary to pay all taxes, interest and charges now due, or that may grow and be due thereon at the time of sale.

The conditions of the sale will be, that the purchasers within forty eight hours after the sale, pay the purchase monies and receive certificates of their purchases; and that after the expiration of two years from the date of their certificates, they receive conveyances for the land purchased by them respectively, unless the owners, or those claiming to be such, of the lands so purchased, shall, previous to the expiration of the said two years, pay to the Comptroller for the use of the said purchasers, their heirs and assigns, the amount of the purchase monies, with interest, at the rate of twenty per centum per annum. The lands sold to be subject to all claims of the state thereon.—And in case any land to be purchased at the said sale, and that may be conveyed in pursuance thereof, shall at the time of conveyance be in the actual possession and occupancy of any person or persons, the title of the purchaser shall then & in that case be subject to the stipulations and provisions of the fifth section of the act, entitled "an act to repeal in part the act entitled "an act providing more effectually to ascertain and determine the true value of real estates within this state, and for other purposes," and further to amend the act for the assessment and collection of taxes"—passed April 13, 1819.

ARCH'D M'INTYRE,
Comptroller.

Albany, May 27th, 1819.

☞Persons who may have made payments into the treasury for taxes, and omitted to have their receipts presented at the Comptroller's office to have them entered and countersigned as required by law, are advised to present them in order to be so entered and countersigned before the day of sale; or that in case of failing to do so, their lands will be sold, and they thereafter be deprived of the benefit of all such payments.

Payments for taxes cannot be received on the days of sale, nor for two days prior to the sale.
