

ther make 1010 years, and they all live within two or three Miles of each other:

General Oglethorp is expected to arrive here at London from Smith-Carolina in a few days.

The Right Hon. the Lord Baltimore, Gentleman of the Bed-Chamber to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, is preparing to visit the Colony of Maryland, of which he is Lord Proprietor. And that his Lordship designs to go to the Court of Russia before he returns England, and will be attended by Mr. King a noted Mathematician, and others.

We hear, that the French are filling all their Magazines with Corn, &c. as if something very extraordinary was on the Carpet, which occasions various Speculations.

Letters from Madrid say, that the Count de la Marck, whilst the Alliance Contract is in Suspence, leaves no Stone unturn'd to obtain a Treaty for the French Nation, to supply the Spanish Colonies with Negroes, which would undeniably, in many Respects, be a great Prejudice to Great Britain. They add, That His Catholick Majesty pretends to have a Right to give the Alliance Trade to whom he thinks proper. And that a Plan is talk'd of there, for augmenting their Marine, that they may fit out 60 Men of War upon occasions.

We hear, that the French are filling all their Magazines with Corn, &c. as if something very extraordinary was on the Carpet, which occasions various Speculations.

Several Packers who had Orders for Goods for Spain, have within a few days received directions not to send any at this ticklish Juncture, when there is so great a Probability of War.

Boston, July 23. There are Letters in Town from London, which inform, That there is so little Prospect of finishing an Accommodation with Spain, that a War with that Nation is now unavoidable.

NEW-YORK, July 30.

We have Advice from Barbados, That by a Vessel just arriv'd there from London, they are inform'd the War with Spain is expected very soon. And from Jamaica we hear, that they expect five Men of War there from England.
