

of the senate to the amendments of the house to the bill providing for a revision of the laws, a member read a letter which had been addressed to him by Gen. Wood, declining to act as a commissioner under the new provisions of the act, in which he thus speaks of Mr. Wheaton, who had been named on the part of the house as one of the revisors: "The proposed amendments to the revision act being so important, and the gentleman named in my stead being so competent, I cheerfully withdraw from the commission."

The Senate then unanimously concurred in the appointment of Mr. Wheaton; and the commission to perform that arduous and important duty, now consists of Benjamin F. Butler, John Duet, and Henry Wheaton.—Albany Daily Advertiser.

We have seen a letter from the leading member in the Ohio Delegation in Congress, to his friend here, from which we have extracted the following: "On my way home, I passed through our State diagonally, and was, every where, met with that cordiality and good feeling, which spoke, in a language not to be misunderstood, that our stand in favour of Mr. Adams was not only approved, but received with a degree of enthusiasm unequalled in our State since its admission into the Union. This enthusiasm and good feeling were, no doubt, as much the result of a well grounded confidence in our political institutions, owing to the manner in which the question was settled by the House of Representatives, as on account of the elevation of the present incumbent to the Chief Magistracy of the Nation."

Singular Accident.—This morning a young lady, (Miss Sarah Ferris, of Stamford, Ct.) was shot in Chatham-street, by the accidental discharge of a pistol. The particulars, as far as we have been able to ascertain, are these:—A gentleman was engaged in the third story of No. 45 Chatham-street, showing a pistol to a friend, who not knowing it was loaded, pulled the trigger, and two balls were discharged, which entered the window of the second story of the opposite building, No. 43, occupied by Mr. Miller. Several ladies were in the room, and one of the balls entered the leg of Miss Ferris, a little below the knee, and lodged, it is believed, some inches below. We called at Mr. Miller's about noon, and were informed, that although the ball had not been extracted, strong hopes are entertained that amputation will not be necessary. Miss F. is about 18 years of age.

From a late London paper.
The French Refugees.—The committee had a meeting at Guildhall, London, March 4th, at which a letter from Gen. La Fayette, dated Washington, Jan. 2, was read. It was written in French; the translation of which is as follows: "My professed fellow-citizens, who are formed into a committee to assist each other, and who have often received the expression of my best wishes, will now, I trust, allow me to profit by the first opportunity, in which I can add something to the tributes of friendship which have already reached them. My personal friend, Mr. Rush, will receive $2000, which I have requested the Bank of the U. States to transmit to him, to be handed over to those of my fellow-citizens who are entrusted with the relief of the proscribed natives of France, and I fully rely on the judicious disposal of the amount. I beg of them all to accept the assurances of my best wishes and of my affection."
LA FAYETTE.

This letter is addressed—"A Monsieur du Comité Français pour les affaires des Patriotes proscriés par le leur pays." In a subsequent letter it was announced that the venerable General had transmitted $200 for the relief of the Spanish, and $200 for the Italian refugees. A subscription of £270 was announced from Glasgow; of £130 from the Fishmongers' Company; and of £100 from the Goldsmiths' Society. A sum exceeding £400 has already been expended in supplying the claimants, and upwards of 300 emigrants are still on the list. Many have been provided with situations as teachers of languages, and several have been sent abroad.

NEW ORLEANS, March 22.
Good effects of Licium Gambiae.
A few days since, a young man of good character and respectable connections arrived in this city from our adjoining state, with 77 balls of cotton, the property of his family and friends. After making sale of his cotton and receiving his money, and when ready to depart to his friends, was beset by some of the runners of the gambling tables, and after the usual ceremony had passed, of intoxicating the unhappy—the allurements of which were too tempting—the proceeds of his cotton had vanished. The anguish of the young man, when sobered to his right mind, was indescribable. He had been reposed with a trust, which not even his enemy could have suspected—that trust he had forfeited. He was determined not to brook the displeasure of his friends, and in a moment of thoughtlessness and anguish, repaired to a rendezvous and sealed his fate by enlisting as a common soldier. Thus were the fond hopes of parents and friends blasted, as it were in a moment, by a practice which is as disgraceful to our city, as to those who were the authors of a law, no better than an act to authorize swindling.

Post-Office accuracy.—In 1795, a letter containing a one pound note, of the British Linen company's bank, was addressed by a man in Liverpool, to J. McDonald, private light company, 78th regiment, then in England.—Before the letter arrived at its destination, however, McDonald sailed for India and the letter followed him. From India, it followed him through the various routes of his company; and came back again to Liverpool about ten years ago. Shortly before then McDonald came home, and died at Doelfour.—There was, therefore, no claimant for the letter, and it was returned to the general post-office.—From that office it was again sent after the 78th regiment, followed it, and about ten days ago, was sent back after McDonald to Liverpool, still containing the identical one pound note. It is now claimed by the person who despatched it, who is still living.—Inverness (Scotland) Courier.

From the Baltimore Gazette, April 14.
An interesting fact.—It is not a little curious that, this morning we received at the same time, the announcement of President Adams' election by the papers of Liverpool in England, and the Arkansas Gazette, published at Little Rock. Thus the improved facilities of intercourse with Europe have reduced the space between England and Baltimore, and the distance between our Great Republic, and the capitals of some of its states and territories.—"The Liverpool papers mention the fact correctly; whilst the Arkansas Gazette gives it as a report, and says the election took place on the second ballot."

The corner stone of the "Tariff Woolen Factory," in Tariffville, in the town of Simsbury, was laid on the 14th inst. in the presence of above an hundred spectators, and an elegant address was delivered by William H. Knight, Esq. one of the founders of the contemplated establishment. The building is to be of stone, 85 by 45, and four stories high. It is intended for the manufacture of superfine broadcloth, and will turn out 100 yards per day. This place is beautifully situated on the Granville turnpike, eleven miles from this city, and within 150 rods of the surveyed route of the Farmington Canal.—Cour. Mir.

We understand that a new edition of Webster's Spelling Book is about to be published, with music set to each lesson. We witnessed, a few evenings since, the performance of "an old man found a rude boy in one of his apple-trees," which was received with unbounded applause. The chorus was particularly fine, very much resembling the "hall stone" chorus. We heartily wish the publishers success in their undertaking.—Northern Iris.

Enterprise and Commerce of the West.
To give our citizens upon the sea coast, some idea of the growing commerce of Lake Erie, we will advert to the fact, that in addition to the steam-boat, now on the Lake, a fine vessel of about 350 tons, there are now building for its navigation five other Steam-Boats, besides several large schooners. Four of these boats will be on the lake the present season; and the fifth, to be built at Erie, Pa. will be out, on the first opening of navigation next spring. This last boat is to ply between this place and Erie, as a packet, in connexion with a line of Stages that are to run through between Pittsburgh and Erie in one day.—When this arrangement is completed, we may expect to see the merchants and others from the west of the Allegheny and Ohio rivers bound to New-York, forsake their former expensive and tiresome route over the mountains to Philadelphia, for the more economical and comfortable one by the way of Lake Erie to Buffalo, whence the canal packet boats or the public stages will speedily convey them to Albany. The journey between the two last mentioned places may be performed in the summer, in three days; and from Albany to New-York, by steam-boat, the passage is now made in 15 hours.—Buffalo Journal.

From Niles' Weekly Register.
"The Long Hundred" of 112 lbs. is rapidly going out of fashion, as it ought. We never could imagine any reason why it was adopted, or discover any good produced by the continued use of it. In all our chief cities, sugar, rice, cocoa, &c. &c. heretofore sold by the cwt. of 112 lbs. are sold by the decimal 100 lbs.—It remains for congress to complete this reformation, by ordering that all goods, subject to inspection and duty, (when weighed) shall be marked with the proper number of pounds.

Bank of Plattsburgh.—This bank, says the Plattsburgh Republican, resumed specie payments, on the 14th instant.

Appointment by the president.—Rufus King of New-York, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary, to Great Britain, in place of Richard Rush, appointed secretary of the treasury.

Nathaniel Pitcher, of Washington county, George Morel of Otsego, and Jabez D. Hammond of Albany, have been appointed by the Governor commissioners to survey a route for a great State Road from Lake Erie to the Hudson river.

Gilbert F. Jones, the person who committed extensive frauds on the citizens of Madison county, has been overtaken by his pursuers, and committed to the jail of that county.

Information Wanted.—Left the house of the subscriber, in the night of the 24th February last, a young man named SOLOMON HAZEN, who has been in a deranged state of mind for upwards of a year. He is about six feet high, light complexion, blue eyes, light brown hair, and stout built—has a scar on the left side of his head, caused by tripping. Had on when he went away dark coloured clothing. Whoever will be kind enough, on finding him, to secure him safely, use him well, and send immediate information by mail where he is, will confer a favour, on a disconsolate family, and shall be handsomely rewarded for their trouble.

NOTICE.
MANY of the Accounts Notes due the late firm of E. PECK & CO. remain unsettled, some of which will soon be barred by the statute of limitations; therefore, notice is hereby given, to all whose accounts or notes have been due more than a year, that unless they are settled within a short period, suits will be commenced, without discrimination or partiality. Necessity compels me to make this urgent call—attention to it will save cost and trouble.

Subscribers for the Telegraph, who have received their papers for several years, and who have never paid a cent towards defraying its expenses, will please to accept the thanks of the subscriber for their liberal patronage. Their names will also be erased from the list of subscribers at the close of the current volume, which expires about the first of July. The above notice is not intended for those who have paid their accounts honourably—they will accept my sincere thanks for their generous support, a continuance of which is respectfully solicited.

THE VILLAGE RECESS.
JOHN BATES
RESPECTFULLY informs the public that he has fitted up and opened a Porter House & Fruity, three doors north of the Mansion-House, Carroll-street, Rochester, where he intends to be constantly "at home," and will be happy to entertain his friends with the best cheer that the season and country can furnish. His Champagne, Claret, Port, and Madeira WINES are not "a whit the worse for being old." He has a choice stock of London & Philadelphia Porter, together with very superior
Brown Stout and Newark CIDER.

He has also on hand, the usual variety of West-India Fruits, and will keep fresh
ORANGES & LEMONS
during the season.

No exertions will be spared to render the "Recess" a pleasant resort for gentlemen who have leisure to settle the affairs of the nation over a sober tankard of ale, or to celebrate the rise upon cognac in a bottle of sparkling champagne.

THE proprietor of the Bathing Establishment, has the pleasure of annexing the following certificate, from the Physicians of this village, shewing the utility of such an establishment, and which he submits to the public without comment.
"We are of opinion that the Bathing-House, established by Dr. J. G. Vought in this village, offers to its inhabitants many and peculiar advantages. The practice of bathing may be ranked among the foremost of remedies in many diseases, and may justly be considered as a preventive in others. In this climate, where cutaneous diseases, and visceral obstructions are prevalent, exclusive of the invigorating and cleansing effects, the warm bath is of great benefit. The water being highly impregnated with sulphur, will do away the necessity of our inhabitants resorting to other Sulphur Springs, to enjoy the good effect of sulphur bathing. We therefore recommend this establishment to public patronage, under a strong conviction that it is a great preservative of health. (Signed)

State of New-York.
Comptroller's Office.
Extract from "An Act to amend the act entitled 'An act for the assessment and collection of taxes.'" Passed 20th April, 1825.
Section 5. And be it further enacted, That the list of stockholders required by the act heretofore passed, and the amendment thereto, passed the twenty-eighth of January, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, to be made to the treasurer of this state, shall hereafter be made to the Comptroller; and if the said list of stockholders of any company, shall not be furnished to the Comptroller within thirty days after the time specified for making the same in the said acts, the said company shall forfeit the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, to be used for the Attorney General in the name of the people of the state of New-York; and it shall be the duty of the Comptroller to furnish the Attorney General with an account of all companies which have not rendered to him such list of stockholders, for the purpose of having the Attorney General institute legal proceedings against the said companies; and that the Comptroller shall cause this section to be published in every newspaper printed in this state for at least three weeks immediately after the passage of this act.
These acts make it the duty of the President, Treasurer, Cashier, or other proper officer of every incorporated company liable to taxation, on or before the 15th day of May in each year, to furnish the treasurer of this state with a list of the names of the several stockholders in such incorporated company, with their several places of residence, and the amount of stock held by each stockholder respectively, designating that which is held by individuals, and by other incorporated companies; and the amount held or owned by persons or incorporated companies, not residing in this state, which list shall be certified under the oath of the said President, Treasurer, Cashier, or other proper officer, to be in all respects just and true.
