FOR SALE,
 A VALUABLE TAVERN STAND AND STORE, in the village of Holley, (on the Erie Canal) in the county of Genesee, 5 miles west of Brockport, and 17 miles N. N. W. from the village of Batavia. Said Tavern-stand (known by the name of Holley Tavern) has a handsome two-story brick house, with a two-story frame building projecting in the rear, both recently painted, and all necessary out-houses; and is situated centrally and eligible for business, at the S. W. corner of the public square, nearly opposite the Canal Bridge, Hamlin's Basin and Store-Houses, and fronting on Thomas-st. into which lead the Batavia road, and other roads from the south and southwest—the principal sources of business.
 The Store, immediately north of the Tavern-stand, is large and convenient, two stories high, with underground rooms admirably calculated for a grocery, and its situation for business is not exceeded by any in said village.
 For terms, apply to the subscriber, who will give a title in fee to the satisfaction of any purchaser. THOMAS PLUES.
