

BABY SENATOR IN FIGHTING MOOD—Rush D. Holt, Democratic senator from West Virginia, may be the baby in the senate, but he can become quite a "tough" baby at times. Here he is addressing a Y. M. C. A. town hall gathering in Washington, and at the moment, is lashing out against the supreme court justices as being "fossilized".

Fashions of the Fashionable

FOR WINTER SPORTSWOMAN—If you are a woman and you like to ski, take a tip from Ruby Keeler, movie dancer, who says this ski outfit is just the thing.

NEW HOME FOR FRENCH EMBASSY—Stately dignity is the motif of this driveway entrance to the John Hays Hammond house in Washington, purchased by the French government for its embassy, at a reputed price of $400,000.

MRS. HAUPTMANN STILL HOPES—Still hoping that means would be found to prevent the electrocution of her husband, Mrs. Bruno Hauptmann is pictured leaving the Trenton, N. J., state prison after an unsuccessful attempt to see her husband. Mrs. Hauptmann is shown, center, with reporters.

CANADA'S FIRST WOMAN MAYOR—Mrs. Barbara Hanley has the distinction of being Canada's first woman mayor. Mrs. Hanley, a former school teacher, presides over the destinies of Webwood, Ontario. Two of the councilmen in her cabinet are former pupils of hers.

ZIEGFELDS RETURN TO MOVIELAND—Billie Burke, right, actress, and her daughter, Patricia Ziegfeld, daughter of the late Florenz Ziegfeld, return to their movieland home in Hollywood where Patricia is to begin work writing a column for the newspaper published by Will Rogers, Jr., son of the late humorist. Miss Burke and daughter had been vacationing in the east.

AT JOHN GILBERT FUNERAL—Marlene Dietrich, center, who had been seen often with John Gilbert lately, is pictured attending funeral services for the movie star in Hollywood. She is accompanied by Dolores Del Rio and Dolores' husband, Cedric Gibbons, noted film-art director.

PRINCE MDIVANI, SISTER-IN-LAW MAY MARRY SOON—Word from Palm Beach, Fla., where the two are vacationing, has linked Prince Serge Mdivani and Louise Van Alen, ex-wife of the prince's late brother, Alexis Mdivani, in an early marriage. There have been previous rumors of impending marriage. Serge's former wives were Mary McCormic, opera singer, and Pola Negri, the actress.

LARGEST DIPPER—The world's largest dipper, on the world's largest strip shovel, in the world's largest strip coal mine, at Seelyville, Ind., lifts the world's largest coal truck with ease. The shovel was built in Cleveland. The dipper is capable of lifting 110,000 pounds of dirt at one scoop—or 2,000 to 3,000 cubic yards an hour.

WINS PRESIDENCY IN CUBA—Dr. Miguel Mariano Gomez, center, sits with his staff in his political headquarters in Havana and tabulates returns which indicate his election as president of Cuba.

NO CARES FOR HIM—While heads of other nations worry over the trend of events, King Carol of Roumania, right, indulges in his penchant for hunting. He is pictured, near Gherghita, Roumania, with gun over shoulder, conferring with one of his gun bearers.

SHE'LL WED YOU IF YOU MAKE $50 A WEEK—This New York girl, assuming the fictitious name of "June Marshall", will marry you if you are not more than 35 years of age and if you make at least $50 a week. And, oh, yes, you must not have red hair. "June", an orphan, is out of work and is looking for a man to lift her, a mother and a grand mother "out of straitened circumstances."