Dear Abby

No ARGUE, VEN 00603. Dear Abby, do you know why your column is so popular? You actually listen to your readers and then respond with wisdom and compassion. I wish all newspapers provided such a valuable service. Thank you for your invaluable insights.

 Yours sincerely,
[Signature]

Ogdensburg Journal

Page 2

COOPERATIVE EXTENSION SERVICE

CANTON—SAVING FOR CHRISTMAS

Did you just get your last paycheck this week? Did you take a final inventory of the gifts you have planned to give for Christmas? This is a good time to get your financial ducks in a row. The Cooperative Extension Service offers the following tips for saving money for Christmas:

1. Make a budget. List all expenses, including savings and gifts, and stick to it.
2. Start saving early. Use any leftover money from the previous year to start the savings process.
3. Shop sales. Look for deals and discounts.
4. Give gifts that you make. DIY gifts can save money and add a personal touch.
5. Avoid impulse shopping. Stick to your list to prevent overspending.

For more tips, visit the Cooperative Extension Service website.

Karen B. Cottrell
Cooperative Extension Specialist

SANDY VALLEY

Ogdensburg Journal

Page 3

EDAS OKAYS $35,000 FOR PARK STUDY

WASHINGTON—The Office of Environmental Quality and Protection has approved a $35,000 grant for a park study in Sandy Valley. The grant will be used to develop a plan for the improvement and development of the park.

According to EDAS, the park study will focus on future use of the park and how to best utilize the space. The study will also look at potential amenities and programs that could be offered to visitors.

In addition, the grant will fund a survey of the park's current use, as well as a review of other parks in the area. The study is expected to be completed in 2024.

Jane Doe
EDAS Grant Specialist

VALLEY CITY CHAPTER

"BOB, BOB, BOBBING"

Bobbins and stripes are the signature look of Bobbin Cove. This colorful and eclectic community is known for its love of creativity and DIY projects.

When he was a baby, it was clear that Bob was destined for greatness. His parents, Bob and Beth, quickly realized that their son was a natural with a needle and thread. They enrolled him in sewing classes at a young age, and he never looked back.

As Bob grew older, his passion for needlework only intensified. He created a unique community, Bobbin Cove, where like-minded individuals could come together and share their skills.

Bobbin Cove is home to a diverse group of people, each with their own unique style. From quilting enthusiasts to bag makers, there is something for everyone in this vibrant community.

Bobbin Cove is not just a place, it's a state of mind. It's a place where creativity is celebrated and shared.

Bob
Bobbin Cove Founder

HACKETTS

Enjoy your Thanksgiving

Traditional Dinner

Roast Turkey
Roast Prime Rib
Shrimp Cocktail
Pumpkin Pie

Served Thanksgiving Day

10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The Holiday Season Comes Early

Due to a large snowstorm, the holiday season has arrived early this year. Bill Specter, your local grocer, has announced that he will be offering a special promotion to help you with your holiday shopping.

The promotion includes a 20% discount on all gift cards purchased before December 1. Plus, you can enter to win a chance to win a $100 gift card!

For more information, visit Bill Specter's website or call (906) 555-1234.

Bill Specter
Local Grocer

HACKETTS

Consultant

INSULATION EXPERTS

IN BRIEF

COLD SNAPS

INSULATION

4.25

SHADOW SHIELD

3

SHADOW SHIELD

3

SHADOW SHIELD

3