Ellis’ 40 Foot Shot Keeps Warriors Alive

By TED BERRY

A 40-foot shot by Al Smith with 0.7 seconds left in the game, the second of three ties last night, allowed the Golden State Warriors to beat the Utah Jazz, 109-108, and maintain their 14-game winning streak.

The Warriors, who have scored at least 109 points in 14 straight games, will be favored to win the NBA title.

Smith, who had 19 points for the Warriors, got the ball on a pass from his teammate and made the shot from 40 feet out.

The Jazz, who had the ball with 0.7 seconds left, attempted a 3-point shot, but it was blocked by a Warriors player.

The game was played in front of a sellout crowd of 19,000.

Reds, Pirates Picked For N.L. Titles

NEW YORK (AP) — The Reds, winners of the National League East, and the Pirates, winners of the National League West, have been named to the first and second place teams.

The Reds, led by Big Van Gogh, a star pitcher, have won 18 games this season. The Pirates, led by Earl Stephenson, a pitcher, have won 17 games.

Four Races Are Slated

At the four races to be held this weekend, the first race will be run at 1 p.m., the second race at 2 p.m., the third race at 3 p.m., and the fourth race at 4 p.m.

City Recreation Tourney Will Resume Tonight

Washington residents were one of the big surprises of the day, as they led the game, 55-45, with 15 minutes left in the game.

The West team was led by a strong performance from John Sizemore, who scored 20 points.

The East team was led by a strong performance from John Sizemore, who scored 20 points.

The tourney resumes tonight at 7 p.m.