LISTEN VETERAN

By VINCENT E. ROGERS
STATE VETERAN COUNSELOR

Q. For several years after the death of my husband, I received widow's pension from the VA. When I remarried, the pension stopped. My second husband, who was not a veteran died recently, and I was left without sufficient income to provide for my support. Is it possible to have my pension restored?

A. Yes, if you are otherwise qualified for benefits, you may reapply for death pension benefits. A change in the law effective Jan. 1, 1971, permits restoration of death pensions to widows who remarry and the marriage is terminated by death or divorce.

Q. I am currently training as an apprentice under the G.I. Bill. As a part of my training my employer has asked me to take a correspondence course. Will VA pay for the lessons completed through correspondence, in addition to providing the allowance under the apprenticeship program?

A. No. You cannot be paid for a correspondence course at the same time you are pursuing training under an apprenticeship program.

Q. I am 62 years old, and desire to convert my National Service Life Insurance term policy to the modified life plan. What premium must I pay?

A. Sorry, you cannot convert to the modified life plan after age 60. However, Ordinary Life has the lowest premium of the other plans available at your age.

Q. Is a veteran penalized if he pays off a G.I. home mortgage loan before it is due?

A. No. A G.I. loan may be prepaid without penalty at any time. Prepayments may be made in the amount of the regular monthly installment of $100, whichever is lesser, or in any larger amount.

FOR DETAILED ANSWERS to these and other questions on VA benefits visit the New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs local veterans counseling center located at 201 State St., or telephone 393-0580.
