Morristown Man Is Killed In Car-Pedestrian Mishap

MABEL C. BLAIR
The death of Daniel Charles Stale, Sr., 60, was reported yesterday afternoon near the future site of the new bus terminal, across from the courthouse. Stale died of injuries suffered when he was struck by a car, by Walter F. Hensel, 54, Route 1, city, who was also killed in the accident.

Dr. Frazier performed an autopsy yesterday, but had no further comment. An inquest is scheduled for today at 2 p.m.

Lindsay Following Script Of 'The Amman Man'

WASHINGTON - Watertown has been named as the prospective location for a film to be produced by Walter Patricia, 26, Route 1, city.

Lindsay, the character in the film, is to be played by John Merrick, who was a candidate for the office of mayor of Watertown in 1971.

The New York mayor recently directed that the film be produced in the Watertown area, according to Lindsay.

No Registration

In Ogdensburg, Byrnes Disturbed

MOLLY F. Smerling said yesterday that he was disturbed to learn that the Registration Board of Elections mobile unit was visiting the city.

"I am very disturbed to learn that the Registration Board of Elections mobile unit was visiting Ogdensburg," Smerling said.

"I believe that the Registration Board of Elections mobile unit should not have been visiting Ogdensburg."