Making Churchill Film Is

All Sweat, Toil And Tears

Makers of the new British film, "Winston," feel that their job "all into words for us the Sudan."

Prime minister up to age 27, his guts and determination. We're shooting from Chur­

Mory News Reports

MOOREY — Yvett O'Neil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald O'Neil, Moore, was one of a large group of students who gathered on Saturday to participate in the annual Moorey High School Carnival.

Mr. and Mrs. Bessy Morley, of Moore, and Mrs. Bessy O'Neil, of Moore, were among those present.

The carnival featured a variety of events, including a talent show, a pie eating contest, and a bicycle race. Special prizes were given out to the winners, who received certificates and other rewards.

Mrs. George K. Rosser received word last week of the death of her son, Robert, who died in a hospital in New York City.

Mrs. K. M. Montgomery, of Moore, was present at the funeral service.

The St. Luke's Hospital in New York City announced Thursday that it had discharged Robert Rosser, a patient who had been treated for a severe injury.

Lisbon Legion

Auxiliary Holds Regular Meeting

Lisbon — Members of the Lisbon Legion Auxiliary held their regular meeting last week.

The meeting featured a guest speaker who discussed the history of the Lisbon Legion and its auxiliary organizations.

The Lisbon Auxiliary has been very active in the community, participating in various events and activities.

Mrs. Lou Winters has announced plans to attend the Auxiliary's annual picnic, which will be held in August.

Mrs. W. A. Smith, chairman of the picnic, said that the event will feature games, food, and entertainment for all ages.

Social Worker Tells of Good Treatment While Red Captive

SAYANOV (AP) — A West German prisoner, who was kept at a Soviet internment camp near Stalingrad before being exchanged with the Soviets, has told the Allies of the good treatment he received while under Soviet control.

The prisoner, who was interviewed by a Western news agency, said that the Soviets treated the prisoners fairly and gave them adequate medical care.

The prisoner, a former soldier, said that he was captured by the Soviets in 1941 and spent three years as a prisoner of war. He was then exchanged for a Soviet officer in 1944.

The prisoner said that he was impressed by the efforts of the Soviet authorities to ensure the health and well-being of the prisoners.

GIFT HORSE-B. Dennis Gibb, director of the St. Lawrence University library, was presented with a horse by a group of students.

The horse is a symbolic gift to the university, representing the library's role as a hub of learning and knowledge.

The gift was presented to Gibb at a ceremony held in the library's reading room.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dawson, of New York, were among those present.

The horse was purchased with funds raised through a fundraising campaign.

"It is an honor to receive this gift," Gibb said. "It is a symbol of our commitment to providing high-quality resources and services to students and faculty."