Quarry Predicts Victory Over Ali

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Muham- rematch of their 1970 bout in Atlanta mad Ali admits Jerry Quarry might be stronger than he and hit harder.

'But I'm skillful and creative and artistic and I'll beat him," the former world heavyweight boxing champion declares of his Tuesday night 12-round bout against the Southern California Trishman.

"I've boxed against stronger men and beat them," Ali adds. "I hit hard enough to hurt and I've boxed so regular and I'm hitting so fast that I'll win.

"Thinking and speed wins heavyweight fights, not just strength." Quarry had declared earlier he was the physically stronger of the two and would put pressure on Ali in this

Peterson Hurls Yanks To Sixth Straight Win Friday

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)— Fritz Indians skipper Ken Aspromonte agreed Peterson, who lost his first six decisions this year, calls himself a "lucky pit-

The New York Yankee lefthander had his "lucky" ball doing its thing Friday as he tossed a fancy six-hitter at the Cleveland Indians to give the Gotham City team a 4-1 victory, highlighted by Bernie Allen's first home of the year—a two-run shot in the third inning.

The triumph upped Peterson's season mark to 6-8, while the Indians' record against portside throwers dropped to 4-20. It was also the 22nd defeat in the last 29 games for the Indians, who led the American League East on May 21 with a 17-0 record.

Now, it's the Yankees who have moved up to third, 5½ games behind Detroit, and the Indians who have slid to fifth, five rungs from the bottom.

The homer by Allen over the right field fence was witnessed by his father, Thurman, who came from East Liverpool, Ohio to see the contest.

"I'm not sure whether it was a fast ball or slider," the exuberant Allen said, "but I was up there looking for an inside pitch and I got it. "You get into a streak that southpaw Peterson pitched a "good

"Lucky, hell! He knows how to pitch," Aspromonte said. "He throws it where he wants to. He's not a lucky pitcher, a good pitcher.'

Houk also said it was "one of his (Peterson's) better games. He's been pitching well even when he was losing. He had five good games in his winless streak he should have won."

But Peterson disagreed. "I was kind of afraid before I went out there because the last time I pitched was a week ago Thursday," he said. "If I would have had to wait one more day, I was thinking about asking Ralph to bypass me and tell him maybe it would be better if I just threw on thew on the sidelines for a half hour. Peterson said he wasn't worried about his control, "It's just that "I don't throw that hard.

"If I pitch well, it's because I'm lucky," Peterson said. "I throw so many balls over the plate and a lot of them get hit. I was lucky tonight on the one Johnny Callison caught for me."

The catch the Yankee right fielder made was in the fifth off the bat of Alex

Quarry, who at about 197 pounds will be about 20 pounds lighter than Ali, said of the first fight, "I learned then I had nothing to fear. He can't punch hard."

Pancho Gonzales Disqualified From English Net Event

LONDON (AP) -- Pancho Gonzales, action against him before Wimbledon.

The old maestro was disqualified from the London Grass Court Championships Friday after a bitter argument over line calls at Queen's Club.

Wimbledon starts Monday, and the British Lawn Tennis Association is currently waging a strong campaign to clean up court manners.

Last week Rosie Casals of San Francisco was admonished by the tournament committee of the West of England Championships after she had argued over line calls.

This week the BLTA wrote to tournament organizers saying that stricter measures would be taken against players who argue over umpires' decisions. And right on top of it came the stormy scene involving Gonzales.

Nobody however, expected the veteran star from Las Vegas, Nev., to be suspended. With the 32 stars of World Championship Tennis absent from the lineup, Gonzales will be one of the biggest attractions at Wimbledon. The Queen's Club tournament, traditionally the last warmup before Wimbledon, could end with both the men's and women's titles going to Americans.

The Gonzales row gave John Paish of Britain an unexpected passage into the finals. Gonzales won the first set 7-5 and Paish was leading 3-2 in the second when the argument erupted. Paish today faced Jim Connors, the left-hander from Belleville, Ill., who has defeated Alexander Metreveli of Russia and Clark Graebner of New York on successive days to reach the finals.

And Chris Evert, the 17-yearold from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., had to play tall Karen Krantzcke of Australia in the women's finals.

At Louisville the Toledo Mud Hens broke a 3-3 tie at the top of the tenth on a bases loaded walk to pinch hitter John Young, which forced in a run by Chuck Scrivener.

Louisville had scored all three of its runs in the second inning while Toledo evened things up in the seventh. With two outs in the seventh Mud Hen John Knox tripled and Bob Molinaro drove him home on a single. Rockets Trade Elvin Hayes

Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP) - Coach Gene Shue of the Baltimore Bullets will face a dual challenge next season: rebuild the National Basketball Association team and find a way to handle Elvin Hayes.

Both projects were set in motion Friday night when the Bullets acquired the controversial "Big E" from the Houston Rockets in exchange for Jack Marin and undisclosed "future considerations."

Although the Bullets won division titles in three of the last four seasons, their record has dropped steadily from 57-25 in 1968-69, to 38-44 last year. Shue figured it was time to make a move. 'When you have a damned good team,

Boating Safety News Reported

The Coast Guard will be cracking down this summer on boatmen who carry passengers for hire without the proper type of license.

Special licenses, "operator" orc "ocean operator" are issued to boatmen carrying six or more passengers for hire. Operators of "inspected" vessels receive master, mate or pilot licenses. ("Inspected" vessels are vessels of over 150 gross tons and engaged in commerce, or vessels carrying six or more people for hire). Boatmen carrying less than six passengers for hire need the "motorboat operator's license". In all cases, these licenses must be posted and be available for immediate production to a Coast Guard boarding officer duringthe operation of the vessel. These licenses are issued only to "persons of good character after physical and professional examinations, and upon proper proof of experience and capability which warrant the belief that the operator can be safely entrusted with the duties and responsibilities to operate a motorboat carrying passengers for hire." These licensee may be applied for at Coast Guard

Marine Inspection Offices. There is no federal requirement for recreational boat operators to be censed. However, some states have license requirements for junior operators. Boatmen are required register their boats in the state in which they are used and, while underway, to carry their boat registration with them. Recreational boaters can call their local Coast Guard unit to find out where to

Rain Postpones Schaefer 500 Qualifying Runs

MOUNTPOCONO, Pa. (AP) — Heavy rains and serious flooding conditions in the area have washed out this weekend's qualifying runs for the $400,000 Schaefer 500-mile auto race at Pocono International Raceway.

Race officials announced Friday that the 33 fastest cars for the July 2 championship event will be selected in time trials next Thursday and Friday. The 2.5-mile raceway, unique because it features two long straights and one short one and only three corners, was closed today. Officials were to decide later in the afternoon whether any activity would be allowed Sunday. Rains associated with tropical storm Agnes had shut the track down five of the six scheduled practice days.

The race, No. 2 event in USAC's "triple crown" series that includes Indianapolis and Ontario, Calif., drew 45 drivercar entries. However, only 29 drivers had been able to get on the track.

Among these who managed to practice last Tuesday, the only day of activity, were last year's inaugural Schaefer winner. Mark Donohue: Indianapolis pole winner Bobby Unser, and Mario Andretti, Al Unser, Joe Leonard and Gordon Johncock-all of whom are candidates for up-front starting stpos.

Bobby Unser clocked the fastest practice time, 185.299 miles per hour, some 12 miles faster than Donohue's 172.967 m.p.h. pole speed of last year.
