Massena School Board
$7.9 Million Budget Approved

dated March 27, 1975

The Massena Central School Board has approved a $7.9 million budget for the next school year. This figure is $1.1 million more than last year’s budget, which was $6.8 million. The increase is due to several factors, including higher salaries and supplies.

WHALES

On March 12, the school district announced that they had reached an agreement with teachers over a new contract that would increase their salaries by an average of 5%. The teachers had been without a contract for several months, and the agreement was seen as a step toward resolving the ongoing conflict.
