

Perhaps You Didn't Know--

That the local Republican Justice denies that his bet with a Lake street matron (Dem.) was legitimate and besides he would like to know how come he owes a box of candy when there were no Democrats elected in Clinton County in the election held in November.

That Fred Carpenter is ill with pneumonia at his Washington avenue home — That the scheduled Montgomery Hotel Six-Lacolle hockey game was called off Monday — That Mrs. Robert Wallace, who was operated upon for appendicitis in a Woonsocket, R. I., hospital last Wednesday, is improving rapidly. Inspector Wallace returned to Rouses Point Monday after having spent a week in the Rhode Island city.

put to work. Besides Mr. McKenna and Mrs. Papin, the staff now includes Laurens DeLano, Vivian Mero, Catherine Brown, and Helen Frenya.

That an elderly, well dressed gentleman, a resident of Essex County enjoyed his short sojourn in Rouses Point last week although he left rather hurriedly and without augmenting his supply of ready cash. After telling several rather "fishy" stories he casually asked a Lake street merchant for a couple of blank checks which he received. The word was quickly passed, however, and everywhere the down-state man went he was told "nothing doing" when he presented a check. That is, until he came to Ingall's restaurant where he succeeded in cashing one for $3. The same day the check changed hands several times and finally returned to the local merchant who had given the man the blanks. The former informed the restaurant owners of their "mistake" and the latter called on Chief Sabourin who not only got the $3 back but informed the man he'd better be moving out of town pronto!

That most of the contracts sent out by the manager of the Rainbows baseball team came back by return mail but for some reason here's one holdout. Maybe Stanley will change his mind — That Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McKenna have moved from the Barker house to the Gettys apartment, formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Don Grizzle — That Customs Inspector Charles Bogardus, who received a month's extension on his temporary appointment the first of January, completes his term of duty at the Rouses Point office tonight and will return to his home at Morristown, N. J. — That Charles Sauvreau is limping around the Holland on a cane after he had strained a ligament in his leg doing fancy dance steps in the lobby.

That Rosemyer & Dann, Inc., Rouses Point department store, will start extensive remodeling operations on Monday which will include the transfer of the women's department to the side now occupied by men's furnishings, with the latter department taking over the women's section — That Mrs. Ed Rawson has been very ill at her home — That Mrs. J. E. Mayo received a fracture of an arm when she slipped on the icy sidewalk near the corner of Lake and Liberty streets, while on her way home from church Sunday morning, January 20th — That the Town Board has not yet acted on the request of Montgomery Post, American Legion, Rouses Point, for an annual allowance of $200 which is allowed under a new state law — That the majority sentiment in Rouses Point appears to be that Hauptmann will not be convicted of first degree murder in the kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby because, while the State of New Jersey has definitely proved his connection with the ransom money, the notes and the ladder, it is not thought that the indictment which states he "murdered" the baby, has been conclusively shown.

That Miss Alma Taylor is ill at her home on Delaware street — That Delbert Cronkrite is up and about the house after having been confined to his bed for a week — That Sweet writes from Florida that the real estate business is booming in the Sunshine State — That Miss Delphine Willett received a fracture of her left arm when she slipped on the icy sidewalk in front of the residence of Henry Mahan on Maple street. She will be confined to the Champlain Valley Hospital for about five weeks — That the Arlington Hotel, which was recently gutted by fire, is being torn down with Phil Bedard doing the work — That Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dragon, former operators of the Travellers' Inn, are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Roma Leverett at Selota. Their daughter, Miss Margaret Dragon, is employed at the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Smith.

That the American Legion Boys' Band, numbering 14 members, is rehearsing Thursday nights in the Hose Rooms. The local post wish to make it known that no charge is now being made for rehearsals. (Continued on next page)
