REMEMBRANCE.

—The peanut vendors reaped a harvest yesterday.
 —The store clerks are not rushed with business to-day.
 —N. A. Woodward is sojourning at Montreal, Canada.
 —The roof of the new Wilson block is nearly completed.
 —Covered tops have been placed on all of Moreau's express wagons.
 —The pay car on the Central left a few dollars with the boys this morning.
 —Hiram Chaddock has returned from Michigan where he has been on business.
 —No legs broken yesterday. No body killed. No nothing to furnish us with an interesting item.
 —Mail carrier Fonda who has been confined to the house for the past few days is again able to attend to his duties.
 —Several of the Knights Tem-plar who went to Chicago last Sunday have returned. They all report having had a good time.
 —At the meeting of the Board of Trustees last evening a resolution was passed ordering the sewers flushed every Friday during the warm season.
 —The Rev. R. H. Nassau, M.
 D., who, for the past eighteen years has been engaged in mission labors on the western coast of Africa, will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian church next Sabbath, Aug.
 22nd, speaking of the work in that country.

A Lath Layer Lassoed.
 Orlando Sayers, whose occupation is that of a lath layer, was arrested this afternoon by Officer Plato for non support of family. His wife claims that he earns from $12 to $14 a week and spends the larger portion of it for drink. During his spree she is obliged to depend upon friends and the town for victuals for herself and three children. Sayers was brought before Justice Johnson and committed to jail.

NOTICE.
 McDonnell & Son opened at 113 Main street (formerly Jones' market) on Monday last with a fine stock of new groceries. They are going to sell goods very cheap. Expenses are small, which will allow them to do so. They ask all their old customers and others to give them a trial and be convinced.

MARRIED.
WATSON--CHICK--At the residence of the bride, Batavia, Aug. 19th, 1880, by Rev. William Swan, Mr. William U.
 Watson and Miss Hattie E. Chick.

The proof of the Pudding is in the eating, and the proof of the value of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, has been fully established for many years, and now few families on the American Continent, but are aware of its efficacy, in cases of Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

BEAUTIFUL! BEAUTIFUL!
ARTOTYPE
Advertising Cards.

THE ARTOTYPE CARD is a picture reproduced from an ordinary photograph by the Artotype process. As a copy it is superior in smoothness and exactness.
IT CANNOT FADE.
 As a portrait of a celebrity it will be valued by the possessor and preserved, thus doing the work of fifty transient, lightly valued business cards, and making permanency a feature, not only of the picture, but of the advertisement. Parties wishing to bring their business before the public in a novel and attractive style will do well to call at this office and look over samples of card size of which we have over 75 different kinds. Cabinet size will soon be introduced. We have the general agency for the ARTOTYPE CARDS and are prepared to fill orders from 200 to 20,000 on short notice.
