At an early age he started out in life with no capital except his willing hands to earn his livelihood and contribute to the support of his aged parents. At the age of 63, by dint of hard work and business-like management of his affairs, commendable economy and fair dealing, he had accumulated a farm, the resources of which would have kept himself and wife in comfortable circumstances while they lived. He died with his accounts square with his fellowmen. He was a good accommodating neighbor, a kind and loving husband and father and a warm friend. He leaves a wife, two sons and two daughters His funeral took place at his late residence, Sunday, Oct. 30th. The body was interred in the Knox Cemetery

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflamation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Fred Spoore had quite an accident with the top of his wagon. Charles Stanton ran into him and tore the top badly, and I not much enough to settle for it. Spoore took him to do the other night and the boys are looking forward to a hot time in the old town some night

The boldness of Will Monk and Silas Carkner! The other day they came into the yard of Peter VanNatten and shot his pigeons off the barn, laming those they did not kill. Will, you had better call and settle before it gets to be more serious. It seems that when the retired people of the village want a pastime and wild game for dinner, they resort to shooting VanNatten's pigeons This is the second time it has occurred. Willis Johnson was the first to set the fashion

The boys played tricks on Hallowe'en eve. At midnight the school house bell rang automatically, and as by magic, gates were taken off their hinges and bridges torn up They seem to have a grudge on the dominie's gate and Silas Van Aernam's wagon for they catch it every year. One trick was a little previous Mr. Nicholas Monk received a letter from his brother-in-law, Parsons, (of bluing fame) and on outside of envelope was written, "He is dead." After reading the letter, he hastily summoned J. V. D H. Bradt, of Union Church, to his residence and upon reaching there found the liveliest corpse he ever saw, and still at his business, manufacturing bluing by the jug full.

Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and to my great joy and suprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. Catarrh Can Be Cured

By eradicating from the blood the scrofulous taints which cause it. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarrh, promptly and permanently, because it strikes at the root of the trouble.

The rich, pure blood which it makes, circulating through the delicate passages of the mucous membrane, soothes and rebuilds the tissues, giving them a tendency to health instead of disease, and ultimately cures the affection.

At the same time Hood's Sarsaparilla strengthens, invigorates and energizes the whole system and makes the debilitated victim of catarrh feel that new life has been imparted

Do not daily with snuffs, inhalants or other local applications, but take Hood's Sarsaparilla and cure catarrh absolutely and surely by removing the cause which produce it

Overcome evil with good. Overcome your coughs and colds with One Minute Cough Cure. It is so good children cry for it. It cures croup, bronchitis, pneumonia, grippe and all throat and lung diseases. F & W S Pitts.

STORIES OF RELIEF.

Two Letters to Mrs. Pinkham.

Mrs. JOHN WILLIAMS, Englishtown, N. J., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot begin to tell you how I suffered before taking your remedies. I was so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without falling. I had womb trouble and such a bearing-down feeling; also suffered with my back and limbs, pain in womb, inflammation of the bladder, piles and indigestion. Before I had taken one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt a great deal better, and after taking two and one-half bottles and half a box of your Liver Pills I was cured. If more would take your medicine they would not have to suffer so much."

Mrs. JOSEPH PETERSON, 513 East St., Warren, Pa., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have suffered with womb trouble over fifteen years. I had inflammation, enlargement and displacement of the womb. I had the backache constantly, also headache, and was so dizzy. I had heart trouble, it seemed as though my heart was in my throat at times choking me. I could not walk around and I could not lie down, for then my heart would beat so fast I would feel as though I was smothering. I had to sit up in bed nights in order to breathe I was so weak I could not do anything.

"I have now taken several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and used three packages of Sanative Wash, and can say I am perfectly cured. I do not think I could have lived long if Mrs. Pinkham's medicine had not helped me'

"Who is that husky fellow at the post office window?" "That's Swatt, the great outfielder. He gets $5,000 a year." "What's he doing at the post office?" "He's waiting for a $4 remittance, so he can joint the club."

Johnny—Dick Stebbins says he leads a dog's life. Sammy (somewhat neglected)—What's he kickin' about? Leadin' a dog's life at our house is settin' in ma's lap all the time an' livin' on cream."

Waggs—I see there is a good deal of talk about Boston having a horseless fire engine. But that is nothing; horseless fire engines were in common use a hundred years ago. Jaggs—I guess you are mistaken. Waggs—No I am not; they were hauled by the firemen.

Rosenbaum (proudly)—My son Solly vent to vork rebording on a newsbaber yesterday, andt last nighdt hees city editor sendt him oud on an assignment. Cohenstein (approvingly)—Dot vos doing splendit. Maybe to-nighdt he gets sendt oudt on a fire.—Puck.

"How did you happen to insure in that particular company?" "I consulted the wishes of my wife." "Of course that's very praiseworthy. But does she know anything about fire insurance companies?" "Yes. She investigated and found that this one always issued the prettiest calendars."

Mrs. Modus—Well, George, you promised me a new bonnet. George—I? Promised you a new bonnet? Great Scott! When? Mrs. Modus—Before you married me you swore that never should disgrace rest upon my head through you; and what do you call this shabby thing that's on my head now?

"My husband," says the large fleshy lady, "has a habit of marking all paragraphs in the paper that say mean things about women." "So that you will not fail to see them, eh? Still, that is not as mean a trick as mine plays. He cuts them all out. Then I have to get another paper, only to find that I have been fooled again."

A conceited fellow, with some pretensions to literature, once traveled some distance by rail with Victor Hugo and entertained the great author with much egotistic converse. The author of "Les Miserables," having arrived at his destination, was about to leave the train, when his interlocutor said: "You may, perhaps, like to know who I am. I am Victor Hugo." "How odd," remarked the real Hugo; "so am I."

"Patrick, the Widow Maloney tells me that you have stolen one of her finest pigs. Is that correct or not?" "Yis, yer honor." "What have you done with it?" "Killed and ate it, yer honor." "O Patrick! Patrick! When you are brought face to face with the widow and her pig on judgment day, what account will you be able to give of yourself when the widow accuses you of stealing?" "Did you say the pig would be there, yer riverence?" "To be sure I did." "Well, then, yer reverence, I'll say, 'Mrs. Maloney, there's yer pig!'"
