Miss Nola Butterfield, Gerald R. Henry Are Wed In Waddington Church

By Mildred Jenkins
South Stockholm—Miss Nola Eileen Butterfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Butterfield, South Stockholm, and Gerald R. Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry, Waddington, were married on Friday, Aug. 17, 1973, at 7 p.m. in the Catholic Church in Waddington. The couple were married in the presence of a few close friends.

The ceremony was performed by Father Lawrence Coleman, O.S.B., pastor of the church. The wedding was a simple, intimate affair, attended only by close friends and family members.

The bride, Miss Nola Eileen Butterfield, was a beautiful woman, dressed in a white lace gown, and was escorted down the aisle by her father, Mr. William Butterfield. The bride was radiant, and her smile lit up the entire church.

The groom, Gerald R. Henry, was also dressed in a formal suit, and was accompanied by his brother, Mr. John Henry, as his best man. The couple were completely in love, and their happiness was evident to all who were in attendance.

The wedding party was comprised of the couple's closest friends, and the church was filled with the sound of laughter and joy.

After the ceremony, the couple was showered with best wishes and blessings from their guests. A reception was held at the family home, where the couple and their guests enjoyed a delicious meal.

The couple will make their home in Waddington, and plan to travel to Europe for their honeymoon.

The happy couple expressed their gratitude to all who attended their wedding, and wished everyone good fortune in their lives.
