The Massena Observer

Massena, N.Y. Observer, Tuesday, December 2, 1974

AUTO RUNS INTO TREE, I KILLED

Andrew Bolick, 18, of 362 Carmen St., Massena, was killed when the car in which he was a passenger struck a tree at 4:30 a.m., Sat.
Dec. 1. His brother, William Bolick, 16, of the same address, was also injured in the crash.
Mr. Bolick died of severe shock at the time. He died at the St. Lawrence hospital at 4:50 a.m.
Dec. 1.

W. BASMAJIAN Delegate To Convention

Mr. Bolick was on his way to school in the early morning when the accident occurred. He and several other members of the Bolick family were riding in the car.

WALTER BASMAJIAN

NEW RULES ESTABHSHED

The Warren Memorial public library is not a teen center.

The library is a place for reading, research and the circulation of library materials. Warren residents are proud of such a firm

The Warren Memorial public library is not a teen center. It is a place for reading, research and the circulation of library materials. Warren residents are proud of such a firm dedication to the preservation of the written word. The library is open to all ages and to all people.

The library is open to all ages and to all people. It is a place for reading, research and the circulation of library materials. Warren residents are proud of such a firm dedication to the preservation of the written word. The library is open to all ages and to all people.

NEW RULES ESTABLISHED

The Warren Memorial public library is not a teen center. It is a place for reading, research and the circulation of library materials. Warren residents are proud of such a firm dedication to the preservation of the written word. The library is open to all ages and to all people.

The library is open to all ages and to all people. It is a place for reading, research and the circulation of library materials. Warren residents are proud of such a firm dedication to the preservation of the written word. The library is open to all ages and to all people.

NEW RULES ESTABLISHED

The Warren Memorial public library is not a teen center. It is a place for reading, research and the circulation of library materials. Warren residents are proud of such a firm dedication to the preservation of the written word. The library is open to all ages and to all people.

The library is open to all ages and to all people. It is a place for reading, research and the circulation of library materials. Warren residents are proud of such a firm dedication to the preservation of the written word. The library is open to all ages and to all people.

The library is open to all ages and to all people. It is a place for reading, research and the circulation of library materials. Warren residents are proud of such a firm dedication to the preservation of the written word. The library is open to all ages and to all people.

NEW RULES ESTABLISHED

The Warren Memorial public library is not a teen center. It is a place for reading, research and the circulation of library materials. Warren residents are proud of such a firm dedication to the preservation of the written word. The library is open to all ages and to all people.

The library is open to all ages and to all people. It is a place for reading, research and the circulation of library materials. Warren residents are proud of such a firm dedication to the preservation of the written word. The library is open to all ages and to all people.