In Celebration of their 167th Anniversary

The U. S. Marine Corps is in Active Service All Over the World... Ashore - Afloat - in the Air and in Plattsburg, New York.

President Roosevelt said in his message to Congress Jan. 6th, 1934: "There were only some four hundred United States Marines, who, in their heroic defense of Wake Island, suffered great losses on the enemy. Some of these men were killed in action and others are now prisoners of war. When the survivors of that brief fight are liberated and are returned to their homes, they will learn that the hundred and thirty million of their fellow citizens have been inspired to render their own full share of service and sacrifice.
