IRREGULARITY IN THE STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 3—There was considerable irregularity in the stock market today. The market at the opening was weak but later there was a strong reaction, with occasional strength in individual issues.

The leading dividend stocks opened well with American Telephone & Telegraph, a gain of 1 point; and the Western Union Telegraph, a rise of 1 point. American Zinc, a new issue, and the United States Steel, a new issue, opened 5 points lower.

The market opened lower and then moved higher with occasional strength in individual stocks. The exchange was weak at the opening but later there was a strong reaction, with occasional strength in individual stocks.

The leading dividend stocks opened well with American Telephone & Telegraph, a gain of 1 point; and the Western Union Telegraph, a rise of 1 point. American Zinc, a new issue, and the United States Steel, a new issue, opened 5 points lower.

The market opened lower and then moved higher with occasional strength in individual stocks. The exchange was weak at the opening but later there was a strong reaction, with occasional strength in individual stocks.

The leading dividend stocks opened well with American Telephone & Telegraph, a gain of 1 point; and the Western Union Telegraph, a rise of 1 point. American Zinc, a new issue, and the United States Steel, a new issue, opened 5 points lower.

The market opened lower and then moved higher with occasional strength in individual stocks. The exchange was weak at the opening but later there was a strong reaction, with occasional strength in individual stocks.

The leading dividend stocks opened well with American Telephone & Telegraph, a gain of 1 point; and the Western Union Telegraph, a rise of 1 point. American Zinc, a new issue, and the United States Steel, a new issue, opened 5 points lower.

The market opened lower and then moved higher with occasional strength in individual stocks. The exchange was weak at the opening but later there was a strong reaction, with occasional strength in individual stocks.

The leading dividend stocks opened well with American Telephone & Telegraph, a gain of 1 point; and the Western Union Telegraph, a rise of 1 point. American Zinc, a new issue, and the United States Steel, a new issue, opened 5 points lower.

The market opened lower and then moved higher with occasional strength in individual stocks. The exchange was weak at the opening but later there was a strong reaction, with occasional strength in individual stocks.

The leading dividend stocks opened well with American Telephone & Telegraph, a gain of 1 point; and the Western Union Telegraph, a rise of 1 point. American Zinc, a new issue, and the United States Steel, a new issue, opened 5 points lower.

The market opened lower and then moved higher with occasional strength in individual stocks. The exchange was weak at the opening but later there was a strong reaction, with occasional strength in individual stocks.

The leading dividend stocks opened well with American Telephone & Telegraph, a gain of 1 point; and the Western Union Telegraph, a rise of 1 point. American Zinc, a new issue, and the United States Steel, a new issue, opened 5 points lower.

The market opened lower and then moved higher with occasional strength in individual stocks. The exchange was weak at the opening but later there was a strong reaction, with occasional strength in individual stocks.

The leading dividend stocks opened well with American Telephone & Telegraph, a gain of 1 point; and the Western Union Telegraph, a rise of 1 point. American Zinc, a new issue, and the United States Steel, a new issue, opened 5 points lower.

The market opened lower and then moved higher with occasional strength in individual stocks. The exchange was weak at the opening but later there was a strong reaction, with occasional strength in individual stocks.

The leading dividend stocks opened well with American Telephone & Telegraph, a gain of 1 point; and the Western Union Telegraph, a rise of 1 point. American Zinc, a new issue, and the United States Steel, a new issue, opened 5 points lower.

The market opened lower and then moved higher with occasional strength in individual stocks. The exchange was weak at the opening but later there was a strong reaction, with occasional strength in individual stocks.

The leading dividend stocks opened well with American Telephone & Telegraph, a gain of 1 point; and the Western Union Telegraph, a rise of 1 point. American Zinc, a new issue, and the United States Steel, a new issue, opened 5 points lower.

The market opened lower and then moved higher with occasional strength in individual stocks. The exchange was weak at the opening but later there was a strong reaction, with occasional strength in individual stocks.

The leading dividend stocks opened well with American Telephone & Telegraph, a gain of 1 point; and the Western Union Telegraph, a rise of 1 point. American Zinc, a new issue, and the United States Steel, a new issue, opened 5 points lower.

The market opened lower and then moved higher with occasional strength in individual stocks. The exchange was weak at the opening but later there was a strong reaction, with occasional strength in individual stocks.

The leading dividend stocks opened well with American Telephone & Telegraph, a gain of 1 point; and the Western Union Telegraph, a rise of 1 point. American Zinc, a new issue, and the United States Steel, a new issue, opened 5 points lower.

The market opened lower and then moved higher with occasional strength in individual stocks. The exchange was weak at the opening but later there was a strong reaction, with occasional strength in individual stocks.

The leading dividend stocks opened well with American Telephone & Telegraph, a gain of 1 point; and the Western Union Telegraph, a rise of 1 point. American Zinc, a new issue, and the United States Steel, a new issue, opened 5 points lower.

The market opened lower and then moved higher with occasional strength in individual stocks. The exchange was weak at the opening but later there was a strong reaction, with occasional strength in individual stocks.

The leading dividend stocks opened well with American Telephone & Telegraph, a gain of 1 point; and the Western Union Telegraph, a rise of 1 point. American Zinc, a new issue, and the United States Steel, a new issue, opened 5 points lower.

The market opened lower and then moved higher with occasional strength in individual stocks. The exchange was weak at the opening but later there was a strong reaction, with occasional strength in individual stocks.

The leading dividend stocks opened well with American Telephone & Telegraph, a gain of 1 point; and the Western Union Telegraph, a rise of 1 point. American Zinc, a new issue, and the United States Steel, a new issue, opened 5 points lower.

The market opened lower and then moved higher with occasional strength in individual stocks. The exchange was weak at the opening but later there was a strong reaction, with occasional strength in individual stocks.