

McKinley's Cabinet

is still an undecided article but our new stock of

SIDEBOARDS

are real. There is reason why some sideboards are better than others: good material, careful construction, and a knowledge of the wants of the up to date dining room.

H. FENTON

169 Main Street.

We are not selling regardless of cost, but our prices are lower than so called "big-out" sales.

MIDDLE FALLS

Mill Closed. The shank mill was shut down last week to put in another boiler. It is now running on full time.

Local Notice. Mrs. L. E. Shaw, returned to her home in New York Saturday last.

Helen Herbert has returned from her sister's at Melrose.

Local Notice. The school closed last Thursday and was open Monday morning, Jan. 4.

George Austin had the bad luck lose one of his team horses last Sunday. It was taken violently sick and died before relief could be procured.

Fred Parker is spending the holidays in town with his parents.

Maggie Jones of Granville is in a visiting friend.

John Calhoun and wife and Chas. Brown of Chesapeake visited relatives in town Christmas.

Frank Simpson of Schuylerville visited his grandparents in town.

M. Mansfield started for New York, N. Y., in the interest of the mill located there.

A. Rogers and wife of Brooklyn guests of Mrs. L. S. Tefft.

The Christmas tree at Mrs. N. L.ington's was a pleasant affair offered much pleasure to those present.

Mrs. Sydney Bennett was at Schuylerville Saturday and Sunday.

NORTH CAMBRIDGE

Taxes Are Lower. Farmers say their taxes are a trifle less this year than last. A further reduction should be made to be in line with the price of farm land and products.

Don't forget to date your manuscript.

Wm. M. Kenyon visited Troy on Tuesday.

Dr. Selfridge went to Poughkeepsie Thursday.

Henry Marshall of Hartford, Ct., visiting his parents.

Allen Crandell is in Birchampten visiting his sister who is very ill.

Farmer and pleasure seekers are going for enough of the beautiful scenery to make sleighing.

Frank Gallo way wife and mother-in-law Christmas with Lewis Bourne and wife at their home in Vly.

Mrs. Carrie Barnard of Greenfield and Mrs. J. Tefft and daughter of Cambridge spent Christmas with Chas. B. Kenyon and wife.

At the request of the officers of the church Dr. Eaton will lecture in church Thursday evening of this week on "The Crowned Prince."

will be his third lecture given in church during the past year and Quarterly conference of M. E. church was held on Saturday at the residence of Mrs. Stewart, Vly Summit.

Presiding Elder Dr. T. A. Griffith of Troy district was present and acted as secretary.

Henry E. Crowell, the travel secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who has occupied the M. E. church, will visit to note the Bible dispen sary which he gave with spirit and grace captivated his hearers. He will receive a most hearty welcome should visit the church again.

Coming to the sudden changes in atmosphere quite a number of citizens have been added to the list. Mrs. Elijah Waters is attended with pneumonia. Mrs. Bald is confined to the house. All Green has quincy and is under treatment of Dr. Lewis of Cambridge.

The Christmas tree festivities at the M. E. church on Christmas was a success in every particular. The presents were numerous. It would take considerable time and space to name the many useful things that were distributed. A program of exercises was also given, consisting of speaking, recitations and songs. All did creditably. A very pretty solo was sung by Mrs. Mary Kenyon in a sweet tone. The peace was entitled, "A Wish for Santa Claus." Mrs. E. E. Aers, in costume, acted the part of Santa Claus and gave away the presents. He caused much merriment among the children.

HAMPTON

The marriage of Frederick Warren of this town and Miss Gertrude Knight of Pawlet, Vt., is announced to take place at the bride's home Jan. 6.

EASTON

Christmas Tree. Prominent among the Yule Tide festivities in our midst was the Xmas eve party given by Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Several families with their children were present and partook of the generous hospitality of the host and hostess. The large and elegantly furnished parlors were tastefully decorated with holly and evergreens. A tree beautifully arranged with ornaments and candles, stood in the large parlor. This was the center of attraction for the crowd, and it was an attraction in every sense of the word. Elegant and pretty gifts covered the tree while many were arranged on the floor. Several beautiful presents were noticed, which were sent by Ralph and Ruth Bingham, of Philadelphia, to their Easton friends. Santa Claus called in at eleven o'clock, and made himself useful in giving out the presents. The upper served, was replete in tempting and dainty viands, and sweet meats. As the clock tolled in the night, the greeting of Merry Christmas was heard from all sides. Indeed, it was a merry time. Expressions of joy would be heard from the lips of the guests as they departed for their homes.

An Old Resident Dead. The funeral of Patrick O'Neil occurred at St. John's church, Schuylerville, on Monday. Mr. O'Neil's death occurred very suddenly, at his late residence in this place, on Saturday morning of last week. He had been in failing health for the past year, but continued to keep about his farm until heart disease suddenly cut him down. Mr. O'Neil had reached the allotted period of life, and was an industrious and respected resident of Easton. He reared a family of children, who are a credit to himself and wife. Mr. O'Neil was an unusually active and intelligent man for one so aged, and possessed a kind and genial nature. Deceased is survived by a wife, four sons, two of them, Edward and John, proprietors of hotels, Tom, who holds a high position at Nutley, N. J., Michael, who has charge of the home farm, and two daughters, Maggie and Minnie.

Newspaper Notes. Sleeping class, Jan. 8th, at Marshall Seminary.

Edna Florence Cooper of Ballston is visiting her friends in town.

Fred Butler is able to go about the streets, after a severe illness.

The condition of Wm. Murry remains unchanged, except a gradual falling.

Miss Helen Morgan, of Fort Edward, is visiting friends in town this week.

Miss Sophia Gifford is under the care of Dr. Mosher She is rapidly improving.

Mrs. Leslie Slocum has returned from Vestal, N. Y., where she has been visiting.

William Dixon and George Hall went a-hunting recently, and came home with three rabbits, three greys and six partridges.

The mercury registered twelve and thirteen degrees below zero at this place, last week.

Ralph Thompson is spending his vacation with his mother at North Easton. Mr. Thompson is attending school at Poughkeepsie.

The regular meeting of the Easton W. C. T. U. will be held at C. E. Wilbur's on Thursday, Jan. 7, at 1 o'clock. It is a crusade meeting and a special program is arranged. Everybody invited.

The annual meeting of the members of the Easton Mutual Fire Insurance company, for the election of directors and reports of the officers and such other business as pertains to the interest of the company, will be held Tuesday, Jan. 5, 1897, at 1 o'clock p. m., at Herrington's grocery, North Easton.

E. H. Hillman starts for New York city, Monday of next week, where he will reside the balance of the winter. Mr. Hillman will act as commission merchant for parties who wish to ship potatoes and apples. Mr. Hillman has a number of large invoices of goods to sell on his arrival at the Metropolis.

As Edward Shearer and wife were discussing the Coaking hill, on Thursday night of last week, they met a rig containing two men. A large package was in view. There is a supposition that the occupants over the ones who robbed the store of Mike Sonn, at Greenwiche, and the horse and wagon, the property that was stolen from Amos Griffin.

The annual meeting of the Easton Free Library Association will be held at Marshall Seminary, Wednesday evening, January 6, 1897, for the purpose of electing the necessary officers, and such other business as required by the rules of the association. A social will be held at the same time and place, to raise funds for the library.

Waldo Wicks and wife celebrated Xmas eve by giving a party at their home. Their friends from different parts of the town were present. Dancing was the order, and merrily did our colored friends "shake it down." Charles Mosher is an adept at arranging a jolly good time, and this affair was under his supervision. Charlie experiences some difficulty in getting his best girl toted around. She resides at Fort Edward, and it requires just three days to do the job up brown.

The case of civil action between Daniel Reynolds, plaintiff, and Isaac Towden, defendant, was tried before Justice Buckley on Monday, at N. B. Welling's hotel, North Easton. Geo. R. Sallisbury of Schuylerville appeared for the defendant, and F. H. Merrill of this place for the plaintiff. The jury returned a verdict for Patrick Welsh, Martin McHugh, Frank Brownell, Howard Cornell and Israel Bronenstul. Reynolds sues to recover wages for services during the years '94, '95 and '96. The jury disagreed, a new panel was drawn, and the case adjourned until Jan. 18.

Christmas passed off merrily among the Eastonites. Among the dinner-givers were one of the home of Russell Robinson. This esteemed bachelor always entertains his guests in a royal way. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew also entertained Samuel Thompson's family and Albert Lawrence's. This well known couple

REDUCTION SALE.

We must reduce our stock of Winter Goods, and in order to do this we will give a discount of 10 per cent off on every dollar sale.

SEEING IS BELIEVING.

Come and secure bargains in Overcoats, Suits, Gloves, Shoes, Hats, Caps, and everything for Men or Boys, from head to foot.

GLOBE CLOTHING HOUSE,

H. SAPERSTON, Prop.
BATTIE'S BLOCK, GREENWICH.

SHUSHAN.

Demise of F. M. Smalley. Fletcher M. Smalley, who has suffered greatly the past two weeks of a complication of diseases, died Friday morning in the 54th year of his age. The funeral occurred Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock from the house and at 11 o'clock from the Baptist church, Rev. E. Cooper officiated. The deceased is survived by a widow, a mother and one sister, Mrs. Millington, wife of Rev. Mr. Millington of Keeseville, N. Y. Interment was in Woodlawn cemetery, Cambridge.

The cantata of "Santa Claus and Family," presented by the young people of the Baptist church Christmas eve in the opera house, was a decided success. Arthur J. Bentley and Mrs. Frank H. Vail, as Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus, were simply immense, as were also the parents of the Earth family, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Qua. The beautiful solo sung by Miss Florence Vail, as little Dor, drew forth great applause. Frederick J. Waite and Miss Ida Bosworth rendered material aid in bringing the musical part of the programme up to the standard. There were three tableaux of much interest, the first presenting "Mary and the Infant in the Manger," with Joseph standing by staring in amazement at the presence and worship of the wise men. The second tableau was "Cantata Beyond the Waters." As "Unto These, Unto Me," was a sad scene of poverty within a cheerless room, while outside is a lady laden with presents, and even hangs a turkey on the door for the needy family. The third and last tableau was entitled, "No Cross, No Crown." The opera house was comfortably seated, and young and old, after receiving their presents from the hands of Mrs. Santa Claus, went home rejoicing.

ARCHDALE.

Chicken Thieves. Chicken thieves are going through our neighborhood and taking what chickens we have succeeded in raising by hard work, and we think they had better be on the lookout for themselves, as traps are being set for them.

Thos. A. Harrington and wife entertained a number of their relatives on Christmas day, and passed the day very pleasantly together.

The Christmas tree at the church passed off very pleasantly. It was heavily laden with presents of every description for all, both old and young, and we think it was enjoyed by all present.

Any one wishing to procure their ice for the coming season, will do well to call on R. J. Lyons, who has the privilege of cutting and selling the ice from the reservoir owned by the Greenwich Water Works Co. Many who rot in there last year say it was the clearest and nicest they ever stored, and we call it equally as good at the present time as last year, and if the weather keeps favorable he intends to commence cutting at once.

Zero weather the past week. Many in this neighborhood are suffering with severe colds.

Wm. K. Rathbun and wife entertained friends on Christmas day.

Mrs. Mary A. Waters of Greenwich, has been in this place recently visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Elijah Waters is threatened with pneumonia; also her mother, Mrs. Wm. Baird, lies very low with la grippe.

There were no services in the church last Sabbath, except Sabbath school and prayer meeting, on account of quarterly meeting at Easton.

J. A. McDougall, Christmas Gifts.

Everybody wants Christmas Things. Nobody knows hardly what to buy. You worry your life out nearly, about one thing or another. There is an easy way out of your mess. Look out stock over. Make this your base for Christmas supplies and you can't go wrong. We can't enumerate all of our goods. We tell you simply that we are better fixed than other stores in this regard. You will find it so when you come here.

Christmas Linens.

Just to encourage sensible gift giving and to advertise our Linen trade at this time, we cut a generous slice from Linens prices from now until Christmas. A handsome Table Cloth, a dozen Napkins, or both, make estimable Christmas presents. A pair of Towels, a single handkerchief, or a half dozen of each are sensible tokens.

China.

When it comes to China, we can safely say we are at home. This year we have outdone ourselves in our display of China. China from Europe, China from America in every conceivable shape. And by the way, what makes any handsome gift than a piece of China or Glassware? You will find it here in great variety.

IN OUR DISPLAY OF HOLIDAY GOODS YOU WILL FIND Ladies' Toilet Sets, Dolls, Collar and Cuff Boxes, Slippers, Handkerchiefs, (immense stock); Manicure Sets, Leather Goods, Lamps, both vac and banquet; Tete-a-tete Sets, Ice Cream Sets, 5 O'clock Tea Sets, Salad Dishes, Celery Trays, Lemonade Sets, Water Sets, Berry Dishes, Fruit Dishes, Elegant line of Parasols, Celluloid Goods, Towels, Napkins and Table Linen, Medallions.

J. A. McDOUGALL,

Greenwich. Schuylerville.

Some More Holiday Talk, And Some New Arrivals of Holiday Goods.

Last week we invited the people of this vicinity to come to Greenwich to buy their Christmas Gifts. Some come and some didn't. But more will come, of that we are confident, because they cannot afford to miss coming as there are bargains on every hand. We are just opening up.

Some Fine China. In Cups and Saucers, tea coffee, A. D. coffee, &c., at prices at 25 per cent. lower than last year.

A Lot of Art Medallions. At 40c, 50c, 75c, $1.75, comprising such subjects as Faith, St. Cecilia, Neerer My G. J. to Thee, Lydia, &c. These are selling fast, can't get enough of them.

New Books. By all the best authors that has been recently published, in nice bindings, suitable for gifts, at prices from 75c to $2.00. In this line we endeavor to give you good service, and will obtain anything for you that we don't have.

Calendars. A beautiful lot of Calendars of the real useful kind, large figures to hang on the wall, or set on mantel, table or shelf.

Sterling. A quantity of Forks, Silver, served Spoons, Sugar Shells, Butter Knives, and tea and Table Spoons; all new goods, bought at the lowest prices prevailing this season, and sold accordingly.

Greenwich Pharmacy.

C. MEALEY, Prop., Greenwich, N. Y.

