Dairymen's League Meeting Held Saturday Evening—Addresses by Out of Town Men.

The Tri-Town Dairymen's League Co-operative association held a meeting in Grange hall Saturday evening. The meeting was called to order by the president, H. C. Carter, and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. A report was given of the annual meeting at Utica June 19. The association sales of all milk and milk products for the year ending March 31, 1924, was $75,032,456.64. Master Harry McGeoch gave a recitation, after which R. L. Dickinson of Albany gave a talk referring mainly to points of interest in the address of J. D. Miller which was given at the Utica meeting. C. M. Slack, Washington county farm bureau manager, was present and made a few remarks. The newly appointed county veterinarian, Dr. Laird from Jefferson county, explained some of the proposed plans in the tuberculin test. After the meeting Dairymen's League ice cream was served to about 200 people.

Girls' Camp Opened

Miss Ethel B. Powell of Hackensack, N. J., opened her Girls' camp at Lake Lauderdale Monday and will continue through July and August, closing the Saturday previous to Labor day. The camp is located on the west side of the lake and can accommodate fifty boarders. All the equipment is the best that can be secured, cabins for sleeping, large recreation hall having a large fireplace in one end, canoes, boats, tennis courts, basketball courts and archery ranges. Nine councillors have been secured and everything has been done to make a model camp for girls.

Third Theatre for Connor

Due to the illness of John Gillis, the owner of the Star theatre at Salem, L. L. Connor of Cambridge has taken over the management of the theatre for the coming year, beginning Saturday, July 12. He will operate the house during the summer on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and in September will other vaudeville on a week. Mr. Connor is also manager of the Pember theatre at Granville and of the Victory theatre here.

Mrs. Theodore T. Buckley

Mrs. Theodore T Buckley, sr., died at eleven o'clock Friday evening at Mary McClellan hospital after a very brief illness. Lizzie Shaler Buckley was born in the town of Jackson on February 28, 1868, daughter of William and Seraph Pratt Shaler. When twelve years old she moved with her parents to Johnsonville where she lived until her marriage to Theodore T. Buckley on January 24, 1888. Since their marriage they have always lived in Cambridge. She was an active member of the First Presbyterian church and of the Ladies Aid society, a member of Ondawa-Cambridge chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and a member of Cambridge Valley chapter, O. E. S. She is survived by one daughter, Miss Amelia F. Buckley of Cuba, and four sons, Harold W. of Stamford, Conn., Theodore T., jr., Raymond W. and Lewis R. of Cambridge; one nephew, Winston Close, who made his home with her, and three grandchildren, Lilian and Carol Buckley of Stamford and Towner Lewis Buckley of Cambridge. The funeral was held this (Wednesday) afternoon from the late residence at 3:30 o'clock. Her pastor, Rev. H. C. Harmon, officiated. Interment was in the family plat at Woodland's cemetery.

Mrs. John C. Scott

Word was received Sunday by W. Artemus Scott of the death that morning of Mrs. John C. Scott at the home of her daughter, Jean Scott, at Philadelphia, where she had been ill for a long time. Eleanor Josephine Haddock was born at Greenfield, Iowa. On March 26, 1890 she married Rev. John C. Scott at Greenfield. They then went to Knoxville, Iowa, for seven years and in November, 1897, came to Cambridge to live, Mr. Scott becoming pastor of the Coila United Presbyterian church. She is survived by two step sons, Prof. Walter Todd Scott of Butte, Mont., and W. Artemus Scott of Cambridge; one step daughter, Mrs. W. R. McMunn of Oakdale, Pa.; one daughter, mentioned above and two sons, James H. and John Scott of Ohio. Three brothers, George Haddock of Bridgeport, Iowa, Rush Haddock of Washington and Frank Haddock of Indiana, also survive. The funeral was held at two o'clock this afternoon from the Coila U. P. church. The services were in charge of Rev. Mr. Patterson, assisted by Rev. John Smart. Interment was in Woodlands cemetery.

Minister Who Was Worldly Wise.

A minister met two of his parishioners at the house of a lawyer whom he considered too sharp a practitioner. The lawyer put the question: "Doctor, these are members of your flock. May I ask, do you look upon them as white sheep or black sheep?"

"I don't know," answered the minister, dryly, "whether they are black or white sheep, but I know, if they are here long, they are pretty certain to be fleeced."—London Tit-Bits.
