LOCALS AND PERSONALS

—Lynn Barber is ill at his home on Main street.

—J. E. Hoag is spending a few days with relatives in Albany.

—Ernest Thomas of Kingston spent Monday with his brother, George Thomas.

—John Fielding has purchased a new Studebaker Special sedan from D. Carnohan.

—Mrs. Silas Thomas of Patterson, N. J., spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. David Little.

—Miss Esther Finn of Albany was an over Sunday guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Finn.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baker of Rock City Falls were in town last evening.

—J. West of Center Falls has recently purchased a new Studebaker standard sedan from D. Carnohan.

—Mrs. Otis Wilson of Walden, formerly of Salem, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. W. Benedict, at her home on Cottage street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Glen Woodbury spent the week end in Easton with Mr. and Mrs. Eddy Liddell.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Slover and daughter Alta of Scotia spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace E. Kar-naghan.

—Miss Elizabeth Lowber of Bald Mountain has arrived in New York city after an extended trip through Northern Europe.

—George Foster is in the Mary McClellan hospital at Cambridge, where it is expected it will be necessary to amputate his foot.

—Mrs. Richard Mackenzie and two sons of Genesee are spending a few days with Mrs. Mackenzie's sister, Mrs. Grant J. Tuft.

—The regular monthly meeting of the American Legion will be held at the K. of C. rooms Thursday evening, November 20, at 7:30 o'clock.

—Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hill, who have been spending some time here since returning from a trip to Yellowstone park and the coast, left yesterday for New York city for the winter.

—Arthur Chase, who recently took the position as plumber at the Haverley hardware store, has brought his family here from Connecticut and taken an apartment in the Marshall house on Salem street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Moriarty, who have been staying here for some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wilson, have removed to Albany, where Mr. Moriarty will be in charge of a drug store.

—Frances Chambers entertained fourteen little friends at her home on Eddy street Saturday in honor of her seventh birthday. Games were played and refreshments were served. All report an enjoyable time.

—Miss Bertha Darden of Fostoria, Ohio, a representative of the Rogers Producing company, is spending two weeks in town conducting rehearsals for the play, Miss Bob White, to be given next week in St. Joseph's hall.

—The Woman's Home Missionary society of the M. E. church urges that contributions for the Thanksgiving basket be sent as early next week as possible to the home of Mrs. William Niles on Fisher street. It is asked that a generous response be made for this cause.

—Archie and Robert Chambers and Harry Ferguson have broken ground this week for a new house to be located on Whipple place on a portion of what is known as the Gunn lot, and which was formerly owned by the H. C. Gray estate. There are several building lots included in this tract, and it is understood that this may be the first of a number of new houses to go up there.

—Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Laella MacMillan, youngest daughter of William MacMillan of Salem, and William Taggard of this village. They were married on Tuesday, November 4, at the Methodist parsonage in Ellenburg. Rev. G. Fairbanks Bristol, who was formerly pastor at West Hebron, performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Taggard are residing here.

—The Ladies Aid society and the St. Agnes guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will hold a sale of fancy and useful articles in the parlor of the Rutledge hotel Saturday afternoon and evening of this week from two until ten o'clock. There will also be a food sale. Tea and sandwiches will be served from two until six o'clock.

—Mrs. Samuel M. Zwerner of Cairo, Egypt, the foremost woman in work among the Moslems, will speak in the Reformed church Thursday evening of this week at 7:30 o'clock. Her subject will be the Moslem problem and its relation to world civilization today. She will also speak in the lecture room of the church in the afternoon at 8:00 o'clock, at which time an opportunity to meet her personally will be given. Everybody is cordially invited.

HYMENEAL

Campbell-Schermerhorn
The marriage of Miss Evelyn Schermerhorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Schermerhorn, 185 Warren street, Glens Falls, to Lester Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Campbell of this village, took place last week Tuesday evening at eight o'clock in the Glens Falls Presbyterian church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Lyon Coughley, assisted by the Rev. W. H. Bradley of Lake George.

Promptly at eight the bride entered the church on the arm of her father and was met by the groom and his best man, Raymond Madden. Cecil Wright presided at the organ and Mrs. Elizabeth Lavery of Scranton, Pa., sang "O Promise Me." The bride was attractive in a gown of white satin trimmed with Princess lace. She wore a veil of tulle caught with Rose point lace and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor, Miss Dorothy Westcott of Glens Falls, wore a pink and white pattern georgette gown over silver lace and carried a colonial bouquet. The bridesmaids were Miss Sarah Schermerhorn, a sister of the bride, and Miss Marion Wood. They wore gowns of pink and yellow georgette over silver cloth with trimmings of ostrich and carried yellow and pink chrysanthemums. The little flower girl, Helen Bradley of Lake George, wore white georgette and sprinkled rose petals before the bride on entering and leaving the church. The ushers were Robert Con-sidine, Donald Spaulding, Charles Van Trump of Glens Falls, and Douglas Scott of Fort Edward.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents to about 150 guests from Glens Falls, Hudson Falls, Lake George, Schenectady, Ballston Spa and Greenwich. The house and church decorations were yellow chrysanthemums, ferns and palms. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left on a wedding trip to New York and Washington, D. C., and upon their return will reside in Glens Falls. The bride's going away gown was a brown duvetyne ensemble suit with trimmings of mink. She wore a hat to match. The bride presented her attendants with gold pieces. The groom gave his best man a gold cigarette case and to the ushers he presented leather wallets. The groom's gift to the bride was a finger band of diamonds.
