DAVIES-HOEY

Five Days On Long Trail

The Rev. and Mrs. Bruce E. Whitehead of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Getty and family. The Whiteheads spent five days hiking on the Long Trail from the Massachusetts border to the Arlington-West Wardsboro road. Father Whitehead has completed hiking the 255-mile trail from Massachusetts to the Canadian border. Mrs. Whitehead is the former Louise Hurd, daughter of Mrs. Anna Hurd of Salem and the late Daniel Hurd. Father Whitehead was formerly owner of the Marathon Independent, a weekly newspaper, and is now vicar of the Episcopal Church of the Intercession in Fort Lauderdale.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore floor length gown, all lace over taffeta, cage fashion, featuring an empire look, attached chapel train, flared sleeves and scalloped hemline. Her headpiece of seeded pearls and crystal held her fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a colonial bouquet of sweetheart roses and carnations.

Miss Cathleen Hall of Schuylerville, was maid of honor; Miss Ann Hoey, cousin of the bride, Miss Cynthia Patnaude both of Schuylerville, and Elizabeth Paladino of Mahopac, were the bridesmaids. They wore identical full length gowns of yellow chiffon over taffeta with empire waist and short puffed sleeves. They were embroidered with appliques of yellow daffodils and circled with moss green velvet ribbon. Their crownless picture hats in light yellow were accented with a long moss green velvet ribbon. They carried colonial bouquets of sweetheart roses, carnations and daisies.

For the reception which followed at Chateau de Louis, the mother-of-the-bride chose a mint green dress with full length lace coat with hat of white and green embroidered flowers, white accessories and a corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Davies, mother of the bridegroom, chose a blue and pink floral print of chiffon with matching pink accessories and a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids.

Bridegroom's attendants were Lawrence Haley, Ballston Spa, as best man; Thomas Smith, Albany; James McReynolds, Greenwich, and John Liptak, Schuylerville, ushers.

For a wedding trip to Montreal, Canada, the bride was attired in a dress of yellow and orange pastel with yellow accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Schuylerville central school, attended Trinity college, Burlington, Vt., for two years and has been accepted at Indiana university.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Greenwich central school, Hudson Valley Community college and is employed in the research division of Product Development for Cummins Diesel of Columbus, Ind.

Following their honeymoon the couple will reside in Bloomington, Ind.

Pre-nuptial parties were given the bride by her attendants, by her college classmates, and by Mr. and Mrs. Alvin VanVorst of Saratoga Springs.
