Weddings

MITCHELL-SCULLY The marriage of Miss Mary Ann Scully and John Terence Mitchell was solemnized at a nuptial mass celebrated by Rev. James H. Griffin, O.S.A., at St. Joseph's church at noon Saturday, July 22. Mrs. Marjorie Flower presided at the organ. The altar was decorated with yellow and white gladioli. Miss Scully is the daughter of Mrs. George McCarty and the late Thomas H. Scully. Mr. Mitchell is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Martin Mitchell of Amsterdam. The bride was given in marriage by her step-father, Mr. McCarty. She was dressed in a floor-length A-line gown of bonded silk crepe with a boat neckline and bell elbow-length sleeves which were covered with clusters of white flowers. Her elbow-length veil fell from a Dior bow headpiece of beaded crepe, the veil being trimmed with appliqued flowers. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and yellow centered white daisies with a shower of ivy. The maid of honor was Miss Linda Tucker, cousin of the bride. The bridesmaids were Mrs. James Haught of Syracuse, Mrs. Philip Moore of Deerfield, Mass., and Mrs. Daniel Stubbs of Stephentown. They wore floor-length A-line dresses of lime green with matching head bows and carried colonial bouquets of white daisies and yellow carnations. Kevin Mitchell of Alexandria, Va., brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. Ushers were Martin Mitchell of Waterford, brother of the bridegroom; Joseph Brennan of Mineville and Robert Netter of Kingston. The reception was held at Wallie's restaurant with Steve Anthony's orchestra providing music for dancing. To receive her guests, the mother of the bride wore a floor-length gown of pale pink brocade with matching pillbox hat and a corsage of garnet sweetheart roses. Assisting Mrs. McCarty in the receiving line was Mrs. Durwood DeGroff of Amsterdam, sister of the bridegroom. She wore a floor-length gown of peacock blue chiffon and a corsage of white sweetheart roses. Mrs. Robert Tucker, grandmother of the bride, was dressed in pink with a pink and white rose corsage. Mrs. Mitchell is a graduate of Greenwich central school and Hartwick college and has a master's degree from the University of Rochester. Mr. Mitchell, a graduate of St. Mary's academy in Amsterdam, received a BA from Canisius college, served three years with the United States army in Germany and was graduated this June from Albany Law school.

ARONSON-LIDDILL The marriage of Miss Joann Carol Liddell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Liddell of Easton, to Dr. Mark David Aronson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Aronson of Flushing, Long Island, took place at Tremont temple, Bronx, Sunday, July 23. The bride wore a street length white ribbed batiste dress with a square neck and A-line skirt. Her headpiece was of Belgian lace and net. She carried a bouquet of white daisies. Miss Jill Liddell, who was her sister's maid of honor, wore an A-line mint green with bonded white lace dress and carried a bouquet of pastel pink carnations. The best man was Harry Sloan of Hollis Woods. The reception was held at the Patricia Murphy Candlelight restaurant in Yonkers. The mother of the bride wore a beige textured linen dress and the bridegroom's mother chose a white suit. Each had a white orchid corsage. The bride is a graduate of Greenwich central school and Syracuse university school of nursing. She is employed as a registered nurse in the psychiatric division of the Montefiore hospital. Dr. Aronson is a graduate of Jamaica high school, Queens, and Western Reserve university, Ohio, and a 1966 graduate of Upstate college of medicine in Syracuse. He is a resident physician at Montefiore hospital. The couple will reside in the Bronx at 3411 Wayne avenue. A pre-nuptial party and shower was given the bride by her friends and co-workers in the Montefiore hospital.

Miss Tefft Feted At Bridal Shower Miss Colleen Tefft was guest of honor at a linen shower held at the home of Mrs. Francis Murphy Wednesday, July 26. Hostesses were Mesdames Albert Charron, Harry Brophy, Phillip Bergin and Francis Murphy.
