Appoint Sanford To School Post

Clark W. Sanford of Glens Falls has been engaged by the board of education of Union Free school district 1, Fort Edward, as a full-time guidance counselor in the local high school.

Mr. Sanford has been junior high counselor at Glens Falls for the past six years and is presently serving as president of Adirondack Guidance Counselors association. A graduate of Ithaca college, Mr. Sanford received his master's degree in guidance and administration. Further graduate work has included a summer fellowship in guidance at Colgate university and a General Electric company fellowship for summer study at Syracuse university.

Mr. Sanford is a third grade teacher in the Maple street school in Hudson Falls. The couple has three children: Richard, completing service in the U. S. army, who plans to return to Colorado state university in September; Patricia, a junior at Hartwick college, Oneonta, and Joan, a senior at Hudson Falls central school.

MARK GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Worth Stickney recently observed their golden wedding anniversary with an open house at their home followed by dinner for eighty-five guests at the Two Squires. The former Harriet Anderson and Mr. Stickney were married July 23, 1877, in Chicago, Ill., by the Rev. A. P. Fars. Mr. Stickney is by trade a farmer, but is now employed by the Hudson Valley Girl Scout council. The couple are members of the Village Baptist church. They have three children; Mrs. Alfred Jones of Fort Edward, William Stickney of South Glens Falls and Mrs. Muriel Storey of North Argyle. They also have three grandchildren.

GOES TO PHILIPPINES

Airman First Class David S. Bancroft, after spending a 90-day leave here, left Sunday to finish his tour of duty at Clark air force base in the Philippine Islands. The airman underwent basic at Lackland air force base in Texas and had been stationed for the past two years at Keeler air force base in Biloxi, Miss., where he and his wife, the former Frances Ferras, lived. Before leaving Sunday Airman and Mrs. Bancroft were guests of honor at a beach party given at Paradise lake by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hughes of Saratoga and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ferras of Fort Edward. The couple was also entertained at a surprise party at Hillbilly Heaven.

Obituaries

MISS SOPHIE von POMER
The death of Miss Sophie von Pomer, occurred Sunday, August 6, in the Glens Falls hospital. Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at her residence by the Rev. Rosco A. Anderson, pastor of the Methodist church. Interment was in Union cemetery.

Daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander von Pomer, Miss von Pomer was born in Mechanicville March 7, 1900, but had lived in Fort Edward most of her life. She had been in business 37 years, 36 of which were at the Ideal Shoppe on Broadway. Because of poor health, she went out of business in the fall of 1954, selling the contents of the store, but retaining ownership of the building which has been vacant since that time. Survivors include one nephew, Donald F. Hay, Glens Falls; and two grand-nieces, Mrs. Michael Reed of Newburgh and Miss Susan Hay of Glens Falls.
